Daily Intelligence.

GENERAL WHITE'S BLUNDER.

The news of yesterday and to-day have been a pleasant reading, but it is not the pleasant nature of the news that is the subject of the article. It would appear that the primary cause of yesterday's disaster was Gen. White's precipitancy. Nothing more was expected of him than that he would hold his position until Gen. Buller came up with the main army. His error was brilliant, but it was not good tactics—one correspondent says it was foolhardy.

However, every man is not a Napoleon, and General White's main error lies in the fact that he simply failed to grasp the fact that the Boers were such clever strategists. British successes everywhere have been gained by daring and readiness to take chances. One such maneuver has failed—that's all. We all sorrow for the men who have fallen and the others who are taken prisoners, but it will not do to forget that the British are fighting a battle of defence and for delay against a superior force, and we must look for losses. The reckoning time for the Boers will be here before long. Let them laugh while they can—their time is short.

In view of the later despatches concerning the stampeding of the mules it will appear that the criticisms of Gen. White have all been wrong.

For the First Time in the Spike and Nail Factory.

Notes of What is Going on Down at the Rolling Mills—Cane of Machinery and Scrap Iron Arriving.

Every Day.

A visit to the rolling mills yesterday by a representative of THE INTELLIGENCER showed that the work of getting this industry into shape for work is progressing rapidly.

In the nail and spike factory the machines are all in position, and the belt-motors are now engaged putting up the belt-motors. The cane of machinery for the turning out of nails and spikes of various sizes. Yesterday for the first time fire was started under the large boiler which will supply the motive power for the running of the spike and nail factory. This portion of the works will soon be in readiness for operation.

About the rolling mills a large number of mechanics and workmen are busily engaged in placing in position the machinery necessary for the carrying on of the work. Some portions of the machinery used here are of great size and weight, considerable time being occupied in placing them in position. Some of the furnaces have been tricked over and are about ready for use. Mr. B. F. Pascoe, the company's superintendent for the placing in of the plant, is constantly upon the ground superintending the work.

The two additional buildings, known as the iron warehouse and the storehouse, being erected by Mr. Walter Alfred, are nearing completion. The frame work on the former is completed and is now being sheathed. It is situated just east of the nail and spike factory and the storehouse just north of the factory. The storehouse will be used for placing in manufacture articles from the nail and spike factory. These buildings are of a substantial nature and commodious, the warehouse being 85x45 feet and the storehouse 120x55 feet.

Every day cars laden with either machinery or scrap-iron are taken over the rails to the mills. An immense quantity of scrap iron has already been placed on the ground, ready for use as soon as the furnaces and other machinery are ready.

Messrs. Abbott and Mitchell and the other members of the Company are anxiously waiting for the time when the mill of machinery will be heard and the industry running at full blast.

Is Still Alive.

James Gillespie, of Plainfield, the young man who attempted suicide on Monday afternoon is still alive, but it is feared that he will not survive.

McClure's Magazine

A poem by Kipling on the Transvaal crisis is, of course, the first thing to attract attention in the November number of McClure's Magazine. In England they are placing the poem even above "The Recessional," and certainly it is a very powerful and inspiring utterance. In order to get it into the present number, the editors of McClure's had to have the poem sent to them by cable from London.

A Frightful Blunder

Slowly Recovering.

William Courtney, of Rawdon, who was injured by a horse on Friday, Oct. 20, and was soon brought to the hospital here, is reported as recovering slowly from the injuries received. We are pleased to learn that Mr. Courtney belongs to a very respectable family and that a large circle of friends and acquaintances are very solicitous as to his welfare. This letter is sent to him with the hope that he will soon be able to return to his home.

SPORTING NEWS.

It is said that deer are plentiful this year in the north country. That a number will be slaughtered there has been no doubt. Hunters have been out for the hunt of these deer for some time. Mr. H. K. McKenty, of the Belleville Press, has been out for some time. He has been out for some time. He has been out for some time.

Speaking in general and for everybody

There's a profound pleasure in writing these trade invitations for this store, from the fact that we can do so much better for you with the goods themselves than we can in telling about them—the reality here is better than your expectations.

Here we are in October—the month of brown leaves and frosty weather—with every department fairly running over with new goods—right up to the mark in fashion—equal in every way to the good stores of the largest cities.

CURE SICK HEADACHE

It has been said that it takes a rich man to draw a check, a horse to draw a cart, a pretty girl to draw attention, a toper to draw a cork, a free show to draw a crowd, and an advertisement in the home paper to draw trade.

JEFFRIES AFTER 25 ROUNDS.

Sailor Sharkey Gave the Champion a Stiff Battle.

The Marine Was So Small That Many Thought It Was a Draw—Jeffries Used His Enormous Avoidance on the Sailor, Who Always Kept Boring Into an Enormous Crowd in Attendance.

New York, Nov. 4.—James J. Jeffries retained the championship of the world, before George Siler gave him the decision at the end of the 25th round after a stiff battle.

At the 25th round, the champion, who was the only one of the crowd that was not taken by surprise, landed a blow on the head of the challenger, who was taken by surprise. The blow was a right hand, and it was a good one. It was a blow that was not expected, and it was a blow that was not expected. Freight Men Meet Mr. Hays.

Serious Difficulty Between G. T. R. and Conductors and Brakemen.

Montreal, Nov. 4.—It is reported that a somewhat serious difficulty has arisen between the Grand Trunk Railway Company and their freight conductors and brakemen on account of a new order, which has been issued changing the scale of the round-trip of this section of their train hands.

A very large and representative delegation is in town and staying at the Grand Union Hotel for the purpose of conferring with the management on the subject.

The freightmen of the eastern, western and middle divisions are represented on this delegation, of which Mr. Morrison is chairman, and Mr. Johnston is secretary. They had a long conference with the general manager and principal executive officers at Point St. Charles yesterday morning. But on their return they were exceedingly deliberative.

Fought and Ran Away.

Hamilton, Nov. 4.—The insurgents attempted to ambush Captain Butson's sons between Santiago and Saragosa. Balaton charged them and drove them out from their position, killing and wounding several of them.

One American officer was killed and two were wounded. The insurgents were taken at the Talavera arsenal include 13 small brass howitzers and 800 men, and a large quantity of ammunition.

Major Bell's regiment made another descent upon Ponce, pursuing the Filipinos thence to their horses and baggage. The American loss was one killed and two wounded.

A Very Hot Fire.

Hamilton, Nov. 4.—The hottest fire for many years was in progress last night, and it will probably not be extinguished until morning.

The fire broke out in the G. T. R. building, which is the place where the freightmen of the G. T. R. are housed. The fire was caused by a gas leak, and it was a very hot fire.

LARGEST DIVIDENDS. SAFEST INVESTMENT.

Boston & Texas Copper Company.

CAPITAL STOCK $2,500,000.

250,000 Shares. Full Paid and Non-assessable.

OFFICERS AND DIRECTORS:

HON. EMERY M. LOW, President.

GEORGE W. RUSSELL, 1st Vice-President.

EDW. B. ROBINS, Treasurer.

F. M. SPAULDING, 2d Vice-President and General Manager.

STILLMAN CLOUGH, Capitalist, Lowell, Mass.

F. M. SPAULDING, Boston, Mass.

C. T. CROSBY, Manufacturer, Lowell, Mass.

F. BARNES, Manufacturer, Lowell, Mass.

JOHN A. SULLIVAN, Counselor-at-Law, Boston.

E. A. SMITH, Capitalist, Lowell, Mass.

The Company owns over twelve thousand acres of rich copper land in Texas, opened, tested, developed and NOW BEING OPERATED. Millions of tons of copper bearing clay and marl running from five to ten per cent., and large quantities of ore carrying from fifty to seventy per cent. copper in sight. Cheaply mined and treated, favorable climate, cheap fuel, and ample water. Stated by geologists, chemists, experts and engineers to be one of the greatest and best in the world. Amount of land, quantity and quality of ore, cheapness of mining and treatment, the increasing demand and profit in producing copper considered, the Boston and Texas Copper Company possesses unequalled advantages and affords the best kind of an investment.

This Company can produce copper as cheaply as any in the world.

COPPER MINING IS THE SAFEST AND MOST PROFITABLE OF ALL INDUSTRIES.

Calumet and Hecla ore averages 4 1-2 per cent. copper. It has paid $62,850,000 dividends.

Tamarack ore averages 3 per cent. It has paid $5,910,000 in dividends.

Atlantic ore averages 85-100 of 1 per cent. It has paid $780,000 in dividends.

Boston and Montana ore runs 7 per cent. It has paid $10,775,000 in dividends.

Franklin ore averages 1 37-100 per cent. It has paid $1,290,000 in dividends.

The Quincy ore averages 1 8-10 per cent. It has paid $11,070,000.

THE AVERAGE OF BOSTON & TEXAS ORE IS OVER 50 PER CENT., and of copper marls and clays from 5 to 10 per cent. Both the ore, marl and clay are within a few feet of the surface of the ground, so that the expense of mining and hoisting is minimized. A party of New England capitalists who have just returned from an examination of the mines in conjunction with one of the ablest mining engineers in the country, report the property to be one of the largest and best in America, and to contain inexhaustible quantities of rich copper deposits.

It is estimated that the plant now being arranged for will produce $3,000 to $5,000 per day, NET.

Prospectus, engineers' reports, assays and full information will be furnished on application. Remit by check, P. O. order, draft or registered letter to Treasurer.

Limited amount of stock only at $5 per share, full paid and non-assessable, by immediate application.

THE AIM

Of our editorial optical advertising is to awaken this community to the fact that it possesses eyes, and that they may require glasses if such be not already used, or that, if they are already used, they may not be the best ones for the eyes. We want members of the public to come to the Intelligencer and find out about these points, and when they come they are satisfied that we know our business.

Afternoon Despatches.

Good News From Ladysmith.

Despatches from the Continent Have All Been Lies.

Far from Being Conquered, Gen. White Has Been Able to Make Sorties and More Than Hold His Own.

(OTHER DESPATCHES ON INSIDE PAGES.)

London, Nov. 6.—An immense weight was lifted from the public mind by the brief official despatch published this morning, by which the Continental stories of disaster at Ladysmith were proved to be false.

Although the despatch itself revived the anxiety of the more timid in another direction, as indicated that Gen. White, instead of sitting tight and acting wholly on the defensive, as it is held in many quarters he ought to do, persisted in sortiering and risking another Nicholson Nek disaster.

Generally, however, the cheery tone of the despatch, showing that there is no anxiety at Ladysmith as regards the ability of the beleaguered garrison to hold its own, has an excellent effect on the country.

From the fact that Gen. White is also to take the offensive and to shell a Boer camp, it seems that Ladysmith is not so closely besieged as was supposed.

Capetown, Nov. 6.—Free State Burgers occupied Coleburg without resistance. Coleburg has 2,000 inhabitants, all Dutch.

The British troops are concentrating at De Aar Junction. A large number of the British wounded from Ladysmith arrived at Capetown to-day.

The impression here is that the removal of the British camp at Stormberg Junction may result in a large number of Colonial Boers joining the enemy, and the English section is utterly upset by the withdrawal of the British troops and serious news from Natal.

The tension between the Dutch and the English has been increasing here during the last day or two.

The news of the disaster to Col. Cailleton's column has had anything but a good effect on the Dutch in the districts 30 miles from Capetown, and they make no attempt to conceal their feelings of satisfaction at the British reverse.

London, Nov. 6, via New York.—Reports of Boer victories, coupled with the evacuation of Coleburg, indicate that a battle has been fought south of Ladysmith, which the Government is keeping secret, which is a belief of rumors of another victory for Joubert's column.

Advices from Mafeking says the Boers stationed a big Pretorian gun, with a range of seven miles, and fired six shots, one hitting the town and burning Wait's store.

THE WAR SUMMARY.

General Sir Redvers Buller cabled from Cape Town to the War Office yesterday a despatch which he received by carrier pigeon from General White.

General White reported that on Friday last his cavalry and artillery fought a long battle with Joubert's command.

The British loss was small, and the Boer loss was most effectively shelled.

Later despatches say that the Boers were completely taken by surprise, the camp at Beersburg captured and heavy losses inflicted upon them.

General White reported the death of Gunery-Lieutenant Egerton of H. M. S. Powerful, who had been badly injured by a Boer shell. A previous London despatch announced that Egerton had been promoted to be commander.

An official despatch states that the British have evacuated Coleburg, on the main railway line, south of Coleburg.

Major Kincaid and nine wounded men of the Royal Irish Fusiliers, who were captured at Paarlburg's Farm, have been exchanged for some Boer prisoners.

The Boers have occupied Coleburg, northern Cape Colony.

A cablegram from London, via New York, says that a battle has been fought south of Ladysmith, which is supposed, on account of the Government's secrecy, to be a victory for Gen. Joubert.

Latest despatches from London show that the War Office has received from Gen. White the information that he is all right and more than holding his own.

Those Nobby Overcoats.

By the way Oak Hall are selling overcoats this fall one would think there was no other Clothing House within 50 miles.

In spite of the rain, last Saturday was a splendid overcoat day with us. We have had three repeat orders on our $10 Beaver coats, and we are telegraphed for more Saturday afternoon.

A Wedding Present.

There is no denying the fact that of all wedding presents a piano gives the most pleasure. But it must be a good piano, and that means a Newcomb piano, for they are good and only good. These fine pianos can be seen and heard at W. F. LINT JONES' warehouses.

WHAT PEOPLE ARE SAYING

That we are bound to have fighting news of some kind, if we can't get it from Ladysmith it comes from Coney Island.

That, with fifty of Canada's crack football players in their ranks, the Canadian contingent should hold their own if it comes to a scrimmage.

That we are due to have an epidemic of grip before long. If you get a sudden chill and a sensation like a frog crawling up your back you may know what's coming.

That for idiotic attempts at practical joking some of the younger members of Belleville's population take the cake. There is a particularly dork spot on Holloway's, and last night some cheerful idiots stretched a wire across the sidewalk at that place.

A gentleman going home from church took a header over the wire. His language was forcible but unfit for publication. The wire was cut and removed before anybody else was hurt. A little detective work to find the guilty parties and a few days in jail for them afterwards would be a good thing. All works are quite bad enough without any such tricks.

DIED.

O'Hara.—At Belleville, Sunday, November 5th, PATRICK J. O'HARA, aged 70 years. The funeral will take place to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock from his late residence, 411 Tremont Building, Boston, Mass.

NO MOURNING IN PAGE.

There is Mourning in Many Belleville Homes.

The Death List is a Long One—Three Residents of this City and Two Former Residents Cross the Dark River—Two Other Deaths in this Vicinity.

FRANK BROUGH
Died at an early hour on Sunday morning at the residence of his sister, Mrs. George Robertson, of Brantford. Deceased was 28 years of age and unmarried. He was born in this city, being a son of the late Mr. Wm. Brough. He was a victim of lung trouble, being ill for months. Whilst here he was an active member of the Baptist Church, and a young man who was universally esteemed. He was a member of Kingston Lodge, S.O.E. The remains were brought to this city to-day and interred this afternoon, the funeral services being conducted at the home of his brother, Mr. Geo. Brough, Everett st., by Rev. V. H. O'Connor. The survivors were: Messrs. W. Kelly, W. Hitchcock, W. Crysler, O. McCarty, O. Cook and H. J. Luscombe.

ROBERT W. BASSETT.
After four weeks' illness from typhoid fever, Mr. Robert Walter Bassett passed away yesterday. The deceased was a descendant on the Grand Trunk Railway, which position he had filled for 12 years in various places, having been in Belleville about three years. He was born at Wesleyville 30 years ago, being a son of Mr. John Bassett, a well-known resident of that place. Less than two years ago, deceased was married to Miss Florence Meadow, of Wesleyville. Their infant child died a short time ago. Mr. Bassett was a member of Newtonville Lodge, S. O. E. and of Mispah Lodge, No. 127, I. O. O. F., of this city. He was a member of Bridge street church, taking an active part in its work. His demise is sincerely regretted.

To the bereaved widow and his family will be extended the sympathy of the community. The remains will be taken to Wesleyville to-morrow morning for interment, the funeral being held under the auspices of the Oddfellows.

ALLAN E. HALL.
The subject of this notice died at 5:30 o'clock this morning, at his home on the Front of Thurlow. He was born on August 27th, 1821. He leaves, in addition to his widow, a family of three sons and one daughter. Mr. Hall was a devout member of the Methodist Church and a Conservative in politics, enjoying during his lifetime the respect of all his acquaintances. The funeral will take place from his late residence on Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock.

PATRICK J. O'HARA.
Mr. Patrick J. O'Hara, who died on Sunday morning, was one of Belleville's oldest and best-known citizens. He was born in Mayo Co., Ireland, 70 years ago, and has lived here 50 years. He has been a resident of this city since 1870. He was a contractor and in well-to-do circumstances. He was twice married. His widow's maiden name was Miss Nellie O'Hara, of this city. By his first wife he had one son, Henry, who resides here. Deceased was a devout member of St. Michael's Church. The funeral will take place to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock.

WM. G. HENDERSON.
For upwards of twelve years, Mr. Wm. G. Henderson had been ill, being a victim of locomotor ataxia. At an early hour on Sunday morning death relieved him of suffering. Deceased was born in Scotland 50 years ago and came to Belleville some 28 years ago, where he has since resided. For some years he was an engineer on the C.P.R., which position he held until ill health compelled him to relinquish it. Of late years, he, with the assistance of his wife, conducted a business and the same time ago to Miss Agnes Stewart, daughter of Mr. Walter Stewart, tailor, of this city. He left no family. Deceased was a member of Belleville Lodge, I.O.O.F., under whose auspices he will be buried to-morrow.

MRS. JACOB NICHOLSON.
A telegram received from Toronto this morning announced the death of Mrs. Jacob Nicholson, an aged and highly-esteemed resident of this City for over 40 years. The deceased was born in England about 68 years ago and in company with two other sisters and two brothers, James and Cornelius, survive. The deceased was for years a member of the Methodist church.

Bismarck's Iron Nerve
Was the result of his splendid health. Indomitable will and tremendous energy are found where stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels are out of order. If you want these qualities and the success they bring, use Dr. King's New Life Pills. They develop every power of brain and body. Only 25c. at J. S. McKewen's Drug Store.

A RATEPAYER'S KICK.

The Subject Not a New One by Any Means.

To the Editor of THE INTELLIGENCER.

Sir,—I wish, through your columns to direct the attention of the City Fathers to the disgraceful state of Bridge st. West and its side-alleys, which have existed for some considerable time. I am informed by one of the City Fathers that a sun was ordered to repair this street, but Street Inspector Hulme took his men to Queen street instead, in defiance of the City Fathers and Mayor. Where does the responsibility for the lack of justice or official mismanagement lie? The ratepayers of Murney Ward have the remedy in their own hands and they are now taking steps to enforce it at the next election, when they will cast their votes to men only who will more than pledge themselves to secure for the taxpayers a more efficient Street Inspector and Aldermen who will not be so one-sided in their views. The condition of the street named and its walks is simply disgraceful.

COMMON SENSE.

Millions of Cups of Tea.

Judging by the large piles of chests and boxes in front of Stroude, the Tea Dealers' store these days, there must be some little tea drinking done by the good people of Belleville and surrounding country. To-day they are receiving their 2nd full shipment, over 3 tons, 12 packages in all. The Manager, Stroude, reports this year's crop of tea of exceptionally fine quality and they have bought heavily before prices began to advance. They have another big shipment to arrive on Saturday.

Wedded This Morning.

At an early hour this morning a wedding took place at St. Michael's church, the ceremony being performed by Mr. Farrelly. The groom was Mr. Nelson A. Patterson, a G.T.R. fireman, and the bride Miss Kate Acton, daughter of Mr. Phil. Acton, a G.T.R. engineer. The groom was assisted by Mr. David Couch and the bridesmaid was Miss Ethel O'Brien. The young couple, after partaking of a wedding breakfast, left for the west. Upon their return they will take up their residence in the City.

Have You Catarrh?

If you are troubled with Ostarrh and want to be cured, use Catarrhine, which is a guaranteed cure for this distressing disease. There is no mystery about Catarrhine, though its effect is magical. Ostarrhine and anuils cannot reach the diseased parts and have thus proved useless, but Catarrhine is carried by the air you breathe directly to the diseased parts, where it kills the germ, gives life and healing the sore spots. It cures by inhalation. No danger, no risk, sold by all druggists or by mail, price $1.00. For trial send five cents in stamps to N. O. FOLSON & CO., Box 567, Kingston, Ont.

"Don't be afraid, you poor fool," said "I am not. It is my interest to learn the truth of this matter, and I believe your story. All you satisfied I shall tell to one who informed me or told that I know of all this that you have told me. I am not aware of your name, and you need not reveal it; you are safe, so far as I am concerned, and you were justified in reporting the facts to me, though somewhat rash."

The wretched fellow was on his knees in a moment.

I gave the fellow 10 rubles, which greatly comforted him, and he departed with many blessings upon my head and expressed that I should protect him in case of emergency.

Here was a real clue indeed, unless,

of course, the little rascal had invented

the whole story, which, though improbable under the circumstances, was quite possible, he being a Rumanian, and as such a chap, "an expert of the truth."

However, I could drive over tomorrow to Balota and verify this story—indeed

Percy and I might from this point take up a hot scent, if destiny were only kind.

CHAPTER V.

FOLLOWING THE TRAIL.

Percy arrived just 24 hours after me—

"good old Percy!" He had not tarried one unnecessary minute in London, knowing that I needed him. I told him all I had seen and done, and he was

"Well done, old man!" he said.

"You haven't let the grass grow under your feet. It may be a good clue, and it may not. These chaps are such frightful liars, but we'll test it at Balota. It doesn't seem quite a likely story, does it? Why should two fellows have journeyed upon your father and carried him off to the post station? You see, you yourself put a lot of the fellow's head by inquiring whether any one had driven the courier to Balota, and he could easily invent the rest. It seems to me that they would have robbed him,

more likely, and left him."

"Evening now!" I said slyly.

"Let's get ready at once and drive over to the post road. We may hit the trail. I fancy it rather myself for want of a better

clue."

So we drove at once to Balota and asked to see the postmaster. A sorry pompous came out and said his horses were all out. If we wanted to travel, we must pay double prices.

I explained that we should do so presently with pleasure on condition that he first answered a few questions. The man looked suspicious, but he bade me enter the house and sit down.

"Now," I said, "had you a traveler or two or three travelers journeying together

from Erinofka last week?"

"Stop a minute," he said. "Have you been speaking to that fool of fools Ivan

Arbuzov?"

I could honestly reply that I did not know whom he referred to by that name.

"Why do you inquire about three men from Erinofka, then?" he said.

"Well, it may be one man or two or three,"

I explained. "It is only one that I care to know about. This gentleman drove over, as I believe, intending to take post horses for St. Petersburg. We wish to know the date, and are prepared to pay for information."

The fellow reflected a short while.

He glanced furtively at me once or twice from under his black, bushy eyebrows. I did not like the look of the man.

"It is against rules to give such information," he said, "or at least against my practice. You may be spies upon the track of some unfortunate who is innocent of offense."

"We are not," I said, "and this is a 10 ruble note."

I will look in my book," he growled.

"Give me the money!"

The fellow brought a greasy, filthy account book and turned over page after page. "Here is an entry of three horses from Erinofka," he said presently.

My heart beat with excitement.

"Yes, that will be it!" I exclaimed.

"Go on."

"Who engaged a three horse carriage to Balota," he continued.

"Good!" I cried, jumping up. Percy was equally excited, though he only understood half of what was said. "You have earned your money, my man. Get me a carriage and horses to the same place quickly, and you shall be paid trouble free."

The savage looking rascal beamed and departed without loss of a moment. He was not sorry, I thought afterward, to discontinue the conversation.

It appeared that he had horses in the stable, after all, for he certainly never left the yard, and yet, five minutes later, there stood a "troika" or three hired vehicle, ready for us. We jumped in.

"To Balota quickly!" I cried to the driver, who was busy listening to his chief's instructions. Rather complacent ones it appeared, for the fellow wore an expression as of one who is being favored a difficult lesson.

The postmaster whispered his last word, and we were off.

"I hope they're not hatching any deceit between them," said Percy.

"I don't like that postmaster Johnny

Arbuzov."

"He's a good fellow."

THAT SECOND CONTINGENT.

No Word of Acceptance or Non-Acceptance Received Yet.

Ottawa, Nov. 7.—At 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon the Government had received no reply from the Imperial Government to the cable message regarding the necessity for a second Canadian contingent. Hon. P. W. Horden is in the city and has all in readiness for a second mobilization if such would be required.

Can Harry be a Hero.

Vancouver, Nov. 7.—It is reported here that Emperor Francis Joseph has consented to a Morgagnie marriage between the Archduke Francis Ferdinand, son of the late Archduke Charles Louis, and his presumptive heir, the Countess Sophie Chotek, on the condition that there is a year's delay. The Countess was formerly a maid of honor of the Archduchess Isabella. Lawyers hold that the marriage will not affect the Archduke's succession to the throne, but that his children, by the marriage, are excluded.

A Hitch Has Occurred.

Paris, Nov. 7.—A dispatch has been received here from Vice-Admiral Courbet, the French commander in Chinese waters, announcing the negotiations for the delimitation of the Kwang-Chow territory, which had been proceeding satisfactorily for some time with the Chinese Admiral, Sou, have been ruptured, owing to the hostility of the Viceroy of the Canton. The French Minister of Marine, M. de Lanoussan, announces that he has taken measures to strengthen the French force in occupation.

Walked Into the Fly Wheel.

Brandon, Man., Nov. 7.—Last evening, while William Shaw was showing a friend through the Brandon electric light works, he walked into a large fly-wheel revolving many hundred times a minute. He was hit with great force and knocked some distance. The engineer pulled him out of the machinery. Shaw was formerly manager of a bank at Portage la Prairie, and resided at one time in Winnipeg. He is about 45 years of age.

This Fire Was on Monday.

St. Catharines, Ont., Nov. 7.—The Ontario Pure Food Company's establishment here, was damaged by fire yesterday morning. The roof of the main establishment was badly burned, as also was the floor of the top flat, but beyond this no damage was done to the other buildings. The stock on the two upper floors of the main building is almost a total loss.

Disputed.

Mrs. Wiggins—I saw the strangest thing this morning on Highland avenue. Mr. Wiggins—No, you didn't. When I was down in Union square this afternoon, I saw a stranger—Somerville (Mass.) Journal.

CHAS. O. BRIGHTMAN, Contractor and Builder, New Bedford, Mass.
PRESTON R. WINSFIELD, Treasurer Abbott Pitts Co., Datham, Mass.
HON. GEO. D. ALDEN, Boston, Mass.

The Company owns over twelve thousand acres of rich copper land in Texas, opened, tested, developed and NOW BEING OPERATED. Millions of tons of copper bearing clay and marl running from five to ten per cent., and large quantities of ore carrying from fifty to seventy per cent. copper in sight. Cheaply mined and treated, favorable climate, cheap fuel, and ample water. Stated by geologists, chemists, experts and engineers to be one of the greatest and best in the world. Amount of land, quantity and quality of ore, cheapness of mining and treatment, the increasing demand and profit in producing copper considered, the Boston and Texas Copper Company possesses unequalled advantages and affords the best kind of an investment.

This Company can produce copper as cheaply as any in the world.

COPPER MINING IS THE SAFEST AND MOST PROFITABLE OF ALL INDUSTRIES.

Calumet and Hecla ore averages 41-2 per cent. copper. It has paid $62,850,000 dividends Tamarack ore averages 3 per cent. It has paid $5,910,000 in dividends. Atlantic ore averages 85-100 of 1 per cent. It has paid $780,000 in dividends. Boston and Montana ore runs 7 per cent. It has paid $10,775,000 in dividends. Franklin ore averages 1 37-100 per cent. It has paid $1,290,000 in dividends. The Quincy ore averages 1 8-10 per cent. It has paid $11,070,000.

THE AVERAGE OF BOSTON & TEXAS ORE IS OVER 50 PER CENT., and of copper marls and clays from 5 to 10 per cent. Both the ore, marl and clay are within a few feet of the surface of the ground, so that the expense of mining and hoisting is minimized. A party of New England capitalists who have just returned from an examination of the mines in conjunction with one of the ablest mining engineers in the country, report the property to be one of the largest and best in America, and to contain inexhaustible quantities of rich copper deposits.

It is estimated that the plant now being arranged for will produce $3,000 to $5,000 per day, NET.

Prospectus, engineers' reports, assays and full information will be furnished on application. Remit by check, P. O. order, draft or registered letter to Treasurer. Limited amount of stock only at $5 per share, full paid and non-assessable, by immediate application.

THE AIM

Of our continual optical advertising is to awaken this community to the fact that it possesses eyes, and that they may require glasses if such be not already used; or that, if they are already used, they may not be the best ones for the eyes. We want members of the public to come to us to find out about these points, and when they come to us they are satisfied that we know our business.

Fighting in Shirt-Sleeves

Things Must be Getting Warm Around Ladysmith.

Twenty-One Thousand British Troops Have Arrived at Cape Town—Boers' Loss Has Been Heavy.

(OTHER DESPATCHES ON INSIDE PAGES.)

Cape Town, Nov. 8.—The first transports bearing the British Army Corps have been sighted. Over 21,000 men should be landed before the end of the week.

It is rumored the Boers have blown up the railroad bridge at Stormberg, which has just been evacuated by the British.

Stormberg is an important point on the railroad running between Alland North, on the Orange River, and East London on the coast.

The armored train, with a detachment of the Dublin Fusiliers and a railroad engineering staff, which left here for Colenso yesterday evening, has returned here. The commanding officer reports that he proceeded beyond Colenso and found the dwellings there untouched.

It is reported that the Boers are not within 20 miles of here. The bullet holes in the uniforms of the Durban volunteers show the narrowness of their escape.

Gen. French managed to leave Ladysmith by the last train from there. Four miles from Colenso the Boers fired on the train, but no one was hurt.

The General is going to Cape Town in order to take command of the cavalry.

The Border Regiment arrived here on Friday.

Sub-Inspector Peiley, of the Natal Police, says that his men alone, forming one of several burial parties, interred 40 Boers who were killed at the battle of Talana Hill.

The Dublin Fusiliers are being served with new hirs, as they lost everything in the retreat from Dundee.

The Colonial forces are already fighting in their shirt sleeves, and it is expected that this will spread to all the forces before long.

ASHORE IN THE FOG.

The Varuna Goes Aground on Zwick's Island This Morning.

Owing to the dense fog on the bay this morning an accident befell the steamer Varuna. She was proceeding to the city from Trenton and got out of her course and ran hard aground, south-west of Zwick's Island. The three passengers which were aboard, including one lady, were safely landed on the beach. The boat was subsequently released and taken to Pictou to be placed on the dry dock, it being feared that she has sustained considerable injuries.

WHAT PEOPLE ARE SAYING

That the brighter news from Gen. White's army in Africa will not Boer you.

That pork will be higher soon. When? Why, when the Boers begin to fly.

That the Continental reports of Boer victories have been running short lately.

That those repeated accidents on the line of the G. T. R. are not pleasant things to dwell upon.

That George it may not be opened, but people living on "Alderman Row" are happy in the thought that it has been "paved."

That the reputation by an Alderman of responsibility for selling goods to the City because the account was "made out by his daughter" is a petty subterfuge.

That Street Surveyor Hulme has been heard to remark: "Let a nail stick up in the sidewalk, and the Intelligencer will find it."

No, the people who stub their toes find it.

That the latest newspaper news does not come from the seat of war. It is from the mine owners, and intimates that the price of coal will be advanced. Dear! dear! Coal will be dear.

That the Mayor's action in re Alderman Robinson's wall paper account was right and that it is time such Aldermen were taught that putting City money into their own pockets is not only illegal, but morally wrong.

That Alderman Robinson forgot when he threatened to go over and "see the Mayor," that he repeated the statement he had made, that his Worship is an Irishman and would have punched him in "rale old style," if he had got within reach.

That the ladies' headgear these days is coming in for some hard knocks. Here is what a rule Kingman says: The hat for ladies is a sort of alcoholic creature. It looks like a pug but that some rude and boisterous person has sat upon.

Rear End Collision on the G. T. R. This Morning.

Nobody Killed, but Some of the Train Hands Were Badly Bruised—Story of How the Disaster Occurred.

About 8 o'clock this morning it became known about that a collision had occurred on the Grand Trunk Railway, a short distance west of the city limits, and that a number were killed and others injured.

Upon investigation it was learned that an accident had occurred, but fortunately no lives were sacrificed. The particulars of the accident, as gleaned from one who was in the wreck, are given below:

At 6:55 this morning a way freight, bound westward, left the station here. Mr. Patrick Garry, of York, was the conductor in charge, and the train was hauled by engine No. 831, the engineer being Mr. Jesse Barlow, of Brockville. Some time later a freight train left the station and, in charge of Conductor R. Smith, of Brockville, hauled by engine No. 841, engineer H. Acton, of this City, and fireman D. Couch, also of this City, proceeded westward. When about a mile and a half east of Sidney and a rear-end collision occurred. The freight train was going along at a fair rate of speed, but owing to a dense fog which prevailed it was impossible to see any great distance ahead. Engineer Acton and his fireman, Couch, were within a short distance of the way freight before they could discern it, and the train, although going only a fair speed, could not be brought to a standstill before a collision occurred. Acton and Couch, seeing the threatened danger did all in their power to avert a collision, but in vain. The latter jumped, but Acton reversed his engine and applied the brakes, thus checking perceptibly the momentum of the train. As it was, the engine of the freight train struck the caboose of the way freight with considerable force, derailing it and two other cars.

At first it was thought that some one had been killed, but this fortunately did not happen, although one of the train hands, Mr. Alfred Dunn, a brakeman, of York, had a rather miraculous escape. At the time of the collision he was in the caboose of the van on the way freight, and was thrown violently from his position and alighted upon a stove. He sustained the serious injury of a fractured skull, but was near by, and fortunately escaped with a badly bruised head and slight bruises about the body.

Engineer Acton, although not seriously injured, was badly bruised about the body. His escape from serious injuries was somewhat remarkable.

Fireman D. Couch jumped just before the collision occurred, and got off with a few bruises.

In the meantime word had been sent to the City and the auxiliary was despatched to the scene. An engine and coach were also brought into requisition, and Dr. Gibson, of the City, and some of the G. T. R. officials were taken to the scene.

The injured were temporarily assisted and placed in the coach and brought to the station, where the ambulance was in waiting to receive them. Conductor Garry and Brakeman Dunn were removed to the hospital, Acton being taken to his home. Garry's only serious injury was to the hand, which was badly cut and bruised. He also had some slight bruises about the body.

At first it was feared that Dunn was fatally injured, but upon examination it was found that no bones were broken, but he sustained some very serious bruises in various parts of his body. He was also badly injured about the face, his nose, cheek and forehead being cut. He will be compelled to remain quiet for some time. He is a married man, residing at York, and is a brother-in-law of Mrs. J. J. McCallum, of this City.

The damage done to the rolling stock is considerable. The caboose was destroyed by fire. Some three loaded cars were thrown off the track and the engine was derailed. The track was blocked for some time.

The way freight was at a stand still at the time, owing to some other train being stationary a short distance ahead of it. Had the steamers been clear no doubt the accident would not have occurred.

NOTES.

A large number from the City visited the scene of the accident this morning, the interest being taken in the details of the wreck.

The accident did not delay the east-bound trains, but freight traffic was delayed for some time.

His Life Was Saved.

Mr. J. E. Lilly, a prominent citizen of Brockville, had a wonderful escape from a frightful death. In telling of it he says: "I was taken with Typhoid Fever that ran into Pneumonia. My lungs became hardened. I was so weak I couldn't even sit up in bed. Nothing helped me. I expected to soon die of Consumption, when I heard of Dr. King's New Discovery. One bottle gave great relief. I continued to take it, and soon was well and strong. I can't say much in its praise." This marvelous medicine is the surest and quickest cure in the world for all Throat and Lung Trouble. Regular size 50 cents and $1.00. Trial bottles free at J. S. McKeown's Drug store; every bottle guaranteed.

LOSES HIS CASE

Action Against the Methodist Church Dismissed at Cobourg.

The Non-jury Assizes opened in Cobourg on the 7th inst., before Judge Meredith. There was an action brought against the Methodist Church by Rev. J. C. Ash, for re-statement and compensation for loss of salary, etc. consequent upon his being located by resolution of the Bay of Quinte Conference, thus giving him a standing similar to a local preacher in that church. The counsel for the plaintiff were Messrs. E. Goss Porter, Belleville, and J. C. Abbott, Trenton, and for the defence, Dr. MacLaren, Toronto, and Mr. McLaughlin, Lindsay.

A number of prominent ministers were summoned as witnesses, but were not called.

After hearing the arguments of the counsel, his Lordship dismissed the case with costs.

ely, and he came out to speak to us, a thing of horns and wrinkles and a head no more original than the rest, however, than that his horse were all out.

"That doesn't matter, my friend," I said, "for maybe we shall not require any," at which his countenance fell. This looked as though, my theory were correct—namely, that the plot, if plot there was, was a monetary one.

"The fact is," I continued, "I wish to ask a few questions rather than to travel. I shall pay you well if you answer satisfactorily. Firstly, do you remember three gentlemen travelling from here to town a short while since, one was a sick person and required assistance in getting into the carriage?"

The man smiled cheerily and said he remembered such a party perfectly.

"Did they travel to St. Petersburg from here?" I asked.

The man assented.

"This seems all right, Percy," I whispered.

"Ask him if he remembers the horse they drove to in St. Petersburg," suggested Percy.

I did so. The fellow put on an air of deep thought. Then he shook his head.

We drove rapidly toward St. Petersburg. He did not think he had ever heard the name mentioned, he said. Perhaps the man who drove the party would remember. The man was in; he would send him. The driver came out, and we put the question to him. He scratched his head, he expected with great freedom, then he made a gesture which clearly conveyed to us that it was "no go." His memory failed him.

"Would a red ruble note help you to remember?" I asked. The fellow said that for this sum he would, at any rate, invoke numerous hearty blessings upon our heads.

Here the postmaster made a suggestion which distinctly advanced the matter.

"Possibly Grishka" (the driver's name) "might remember the way to the house and the very horse itself if he were to drive your merciful highness into town, though the name of the street has escaped his memory. I might hire horses for your highness—at a certain rate!"

"Hire them, hire them, little father," I cried, "at any price you please, and Grishka here shall drive us to the very house! Gad, Percy," I added in English, "we're on the scent now with a vengeance. This fellow will take us to the very house the rascals carried for us. It is splendid!"

"It does seem rather risky," said Percy.

Within five minutes the horses were harnessed and ready. We jumped into the trap and drove rapidly toward St. Petersburg. Three hours later the city lights danced before us, and we knew that in a quarter of an hour the secret of dear old dad's whereabouts, or at all events a strong clue, would be in our hands.

"Sherlock Holmes is not in it," had been the burden of our conversation during the exciting drive. We had done this thing well and were in full swing for success—the reward of patience and good management.

Now we were driving through the streets. Over the Tschukoff bridge we dashed, and through Yassil Ostroff and across the Nicholas bridge; then to the left by the English quay to the Winter palace and straight on to the Palace quay—the most fashionable of all quarters of the town. "Grishka, you fool!" I shouted. "Where are you taking us to? It could not have been here the party came!"

"There's no mistake, highness," said Grishka over his shoulder. "This was certainly the way."

"Good heavens, Boris!" said Percy. "Do you know what? I'm taking us to your own house. He must have brought the count and the others here on some former occasion. He must be a very old hand at this sort of thing."

It was too sickeningly true. Straight as an arrow he drove us to our own door—147 Palace quay—and drove up the steps.

"There!" said Grishka. "The very house. I remember it by the big stone balcony."

I climbed sadly out—dejected and disappointed. Percy was scarcely more cheerful.

"Grishka," I said, "do you tell me you brought those gentlemen here last week?"

"Last week? Have mercy, barin, no! Not last week—many weeks, months ago."

I paid the fellow and sent him away. We had been done—whether intentionally or not, I had not the heart as yet to think out. We had, I firmly believe, struck a true trail, but had lost it almost in the finding.

CHAPTER VI.

DETECTIVE IN THE CASE.

After this failure, which had promised at one moment to be a grand success, Percy and I fell so bound that we actually consulted with each other as to whether the police should be invited to take over the matter, or at least asked to assist us in our further inquiries.

My dear mother was, however, very much adverse to such a step. She had always felt horror of the Russian detective force, that "terrible third section," the ununiformed, secret, mysterious, spying creatures who swarm, or swarmed at that time, in the capital city of the czar. "For the love of heaven," she entreated us, with tears in her eyes, "let us keep our own counsel and try to solve the mystery ourselves."

SAID IT WAS ULTRA VIOLET.

The Second Day's Argument in the Ontario Lumber Case.

Toronto, Nov. 8.—Argument in the case of the Michigan lumbermen against the Ontario government was continued yesterday at Ontario Hall before Mr. Justice Street.

Mr. Christopher Robinson contended that the manufacturers' claim was not only to secure new sales of timber, but that it was not to be restricted to the timber of the province. He contended that the statute was beyond the power of the provincial government, and that it was ultra vires.

Mr. Scott followed, arguing in favor of the existence of a contract with the government.

Mr. Blake in reply said the question was whether the lumber business of Ontario was to be run according to the claims of persons on the other side of the line or not. He contended that the principle governing the case was that a license should not issue for a longer period than that for which a contract was made, and that a year's contract was a perpetual privilege, and Mr. Blake was still speaking when the court arose.

Got a Cheque for $1,439,000.

Montreal, Nov. 8.—There are three happy men here to-day, and the names of the joyous trio are J. N. Greenfield, William Mitchell and William Farwell. These gentlemen were the owners of the Drummondville mill, which the Laurier government purchased, and which was yesterday paid for by a cheque from the department for $1,439,000. The cheque was up in $130,000 loan money and $25,000 which the department held back owing to some defects in title.

Ridgeway to St. Thomas.

Ottawa, Nov. 8.—Application of Lake Erie and Detroit River Railway for extending its road from Ridgeway to St. Thomas, was heard before the Railway Committee of the Privy Council yesterday afternoon and judgment was reserved. Mr. Laidlaw, Q.C., appeared for the Lake Erie and Detroit River Road, and Mr. Kingsmill, Q.C., for the Canada Southern.

The Webster Hotel Fire.

Montreal, Nov. 7.—At the instance of Coroner Macdonald, warrants were issued today for the arrest of Mrs. Main, the owner of the Webster Hotel, and Mr. Perkins, the lessee, who were charged by the coroner's jury with being responsible for the fire at the Webster Hotel fire, the warrants have been given to the police to execute.

Germany and the Open Door.

Berlin, Nov. 7.—The Foreign Office has issued a statement to the effect that the German government is not prepared to accept the United States' proposal for the opening of the Chinese ports to foreign trade, but that it is prepared to accept the principle of the open door, which means that Germany has no special privilege in China, that Germany has no special privilege in China, that Germany has no special privilege in China.

Some Imports Increased, But Cheese and Cattle Decreased.

London, Nov. 8.—From recently published statistics, it is learned that the imports from Canada for the month of October have been: Cattle, 11,319, valued at £191,633; sheep and lambs, 10,710, £16,246; wheat, 558,800 cwt., £198,633; wheat and flour, 265,300 cwt., £122,428; peas, 166,900 cwt., £55,582; bacon, £2,014 cwt., £91,850; hams, 10,159 cwt., £21,298; butter, 47,201 cwt., £219,037; cheese, 21,527 cwt., £83,090; eggs, 6,037 great hundreds, £68,943; horses, 628, £17,397.

The total value of imports from Canada is £2,225,730, and of exports to that colony, £149,603.

Bert Kilner Shot by Accident.

Toronto, Nov. 8.—Bert Kilner and C. A. Krauss were early yesterday morning and went out shooting on the farm. They were near the island, when both barrels of Kilner's gun, the hammer being at full cock, accidentally were discharged simultaneously. One charge shot off his right knee cap and the other mutilated a finger of his left hand. The injured man was brought over to the Electric Light Company's wharf and removed in the ambulance to the Emergency Hospital, where his wounds were treated.

Pitch-In on the M. C. R.

St. Thomas, Nov. 8.—A pitch-in occurred on the M.C.R. at Fargo at 5:45 o'clock yesterday morning. Conductor Percy Lowry's extra west bound freight was pulling the riding when Conductor W. Phoenix's west bound freight crashed into the rear of it. The caboose and three coal cars were derailed and badly damaged. Two other cars were also badly damaged. No person was hurt. The accident was due to the heavy fog. No. 35 express was delayed one hour and forty minutes in consequence of the accident.

Insurgents Take the Offensive.

Manila, Nov. 8.—A force of 300 insurgents attacked the 4th Cavalry last night, making three futile charges and using three men. The Americans lost none.

The first raft across the ferry at Cabatuan was carried away by the swift current. It had 16 men, the 1st Cavalry on board with the 1st Cavalry, but only one of them was drowned.

They All Signed It.

Washington, Nov. 8.—Assistant Secretary Hill for the United States, Mr. Tower, for Great Britain, and Mr. Von Schwarzenstein on the part of Germany, yesterday, at the State Department, signed a convention providing for the adjustment by arbitration of claims of inhabitants of Siam, for damages resulting from the naval and military operations there last spring.

Important to Exhibitors.

Toronto, Nov. 8.—A circular issued by the freight department of the C.P.R. announces that all live stock shipped to the Quebec Christmas Fair Stock Show, to be held Dec. 6 to 8, inclusive, and to the Provin-London, from Dec. 11 to 15, will be carried on the same conditions as exhibition freight.

Mr. Stratton Slightly Seated.

Peterborough, Nov. 8.—Nominations were held here yesterday for the selection of a candidate to contest the riding of West Peterborough, rendered necessary by Hon. J. R. Stratton's call to the cabinet. Mr. E. Hamilton nominated Mr. Stratton, who was seconded by Mr. P. O'Rourke. No other nominations were received, and Hon. Mr. Stratton was declared elected.

For coughs, colds, bronchitis and all lung troubles, there is no preparation so prompt and permanent relief. It moves all secretions, and breaks the disordered action of the lungs, and soothes the inflamed membrane, and by promoting expectoration, removes the cause of difficulty in breathing, thereby saving the lungs from the depressing influence of the chest. Public speakers and singers will find it a most valuable remedy. It is a most valuable remedy for all lung troubles, and is a most valuable remedy for all lung troubles, and is a most valuable remedy for all lung troubles.

Boer Were Cut Off Almost to a Man—
Communication With the Boers as the Result,
They Were Destroyed as the Result.

London, Nov. 8.—Last night's wireless telegrams from the front have not the veil of gloom enveloping Colenso, showing the British general most miserably standing on the dogged defiance, but executing a series of brilliant maneuvers. Accounts from different sources agree that the heroic official description of Thursday's engagement was a Boer victory, and that the Boer leader, "the Boer," was unduly modest.

THE WINNIEPOO ROBBERY CASE
Mr. Hagel Made a Powerful Defence of the Prisoner.

He Was Followed by Mr. Howell in a Plain Statement of the Case.

Agreed to an Adjournment, and Will Hear Judge Bain's Charge This Morning.

Winnipeg, Nov. 8.—Yesterday Judge Bain took his seat promptly at 10 o'clock and the case was proceeded with. At the conclusion of the evidence of a few witnesses for the defence and the close of the case, the prisoner's side, the prosecution called in rebuttal Jerry Robinson, Louis, who said that he had employed Davis on March 1 last. He had arranged to have Davis come to work in his store in the afternoon and called on Mr. Robinson in his office at 5 o'clock Saturday afternoon and said that he could place the robbery.

BOERS WERE CUT TO PIECES.
It appears that Sir George Stewart White sent a strong force of cavalry and infantry to attack the Boers at Colenso, an attack of 10 miles to the northwest, near Beaufort's, and apparently achieved a surprise, the Boers being caught on the open veldt and cut to pieces and their camp captured. Encouraged by this success, the British general intended to risk an even more important engagement on the following day, which would have resulted in a decisive victory for the British.

BOERS FIRED THE VELD.
Small Dynamite Magazine Exploded With Terrible Force.

London, Nov. 8.—The Daily Mail publishes the following despatch from Kimberley, Nov. 7: "The Boers fired the veldt, and the explosion of the dynamite magazine exploded with terrible force. The explosion was heard for miles around, and the Boers were driven back to their camp. The explosion was a great success for the British, and it showed that the Boers were not as strong as they seemed to be."

SNAP SHOTS AT TIMELY TOPICS.

—Our American cousins are beginning to wake up to the fact that there is need of a revision in their divorce laws (if marriage is to be a permanent union) and the necessity of an institution is not to be utterly ruined as it is in Canada. We know little of the great evil divorce has grown to be across the line, where some states make a regular business of granting divorces as a means of attracting a floating population, and lawyers advertised for clients, laying stress on their "plans" and the secrecy of their process, very much on the same lines that an insurance company advertises its plans of insurance. As length the churches have become aroused to the danger of the thing which threatens the wreck of American society, and they are putting forward every effort to check its growth.

—In a letter to the Stratford (Ont.) Beacon, bristling with details, Mr. James Pringle of the Classic City points out some outrageous discriminations against Canadian shipwreckers practiced by Canadian railways. Wheat is carried from Chicago to the seaboard at the rate of 8 cents per 100 pounds, while from this district the rate is 12 cents to Montreal and 15 cents to Portland. The result claimed is that wheat is six to eight cents higher in Chicago than it is in Canada, and the Ontario farmer who wishes to export to the European market is at a great disadvantage. Mr. Pringle's charges are specific, and are based on his own experience.

—These Boer guns which the contingent from H.M.S. Powerful knock out of service each day threaten to become the Possessors of the South Africa war.

—Municipal papers refer to the insurgents as "Hellions." On the theory that war is Hell, that may be a more vigorous way of calling them warriors.

—That pigeon post from Lady Smith appears to be a highly satisfactory form of wireless telegraphy.

No Right To Ugliness.

The woman who is lovely in face, form and temper will always have friends, but one who would be attractive and keep her health, she will be nervous and irritable. If she has constipation or indigestion, her complexion will be sallow, blotchy, her eyes will be red, and her hair will be falling out.

Electric Bitters is the best medicine in the world to regulate stomach, liver and bowels. It gives strength, energy, and health. It is a rich complexion, it makes a good looking charming woman of a run-down invalid. Only 50 cents at J. S. Macdonald's Drug Store.

ADDRESS AND PRESENTATION.

Rev. W. J. Gilliland and Bride the Recipients of Handsome Presents and Warm Congratulations Last Night.

A very pleasant event came off last night at the residence of Mr. Hampton, Foster Ave., when the Young People's Society and Choir of Emmanuel R. E. Church presented to their pastor, Rev. W. J. Gilliland, an address expressive of their esteem for him, and at the same time congratulating him upon the fact that he had recently added to his blessings by taking unto himself a wife. Accompanying the address, which was read by Miss Lizzie Worrell, were a number of beautiful presents.

Mr. Gilliland made a feeling reply, thanking them, not only for their present expressions of good will and beautiful presents, but also for the kind and encouraging words they had given him, since he had held that position.

The members of the congregation had turned out in force to do honor to their minister, and the house was crowded. The evening was one of much enjoyment to all present, refreshments being served and the evening was enjoyed by members of the Choir and Young People's Society.

The Boys Did It.—They supplied us with the merriment of the night. The wonderful D. & M. Emulsion, which relieves in a few days backache, rheumatism, neuralgia, rheumatism and sciatica. Manufactured by the DAVIS & LAWRENCE CO., Limited.

GREAT BRITAIN'S "SPLendid" ISLAND

Breaks Before Universal Anglo-Saxon Sympathy and Cordial German Relations.

In This Time of War Britain's Premier Tells the British Public Just Where and How They Stand With Other Nations—Germany a Friend of Great Britain—American Good Will Cuts a Figure Now—There Will Be No Interference by Other Nations.

London, Nov. 10.—The Lord Mayor's show, which marked the induction of Mr. A. J. Newton into office, was honored yesterday by exceptionally fine weather. The anticipated throngs failed to satisfy the London crowds, who poured out in enormous numbers to witness the spectacle. The streets were lavishly decorated with flags, but the absence of a detachment of the British army, which was expected to participate in the procession, was a disappointment. A number of splendidly bridged torches, which were to have been carried by the front, are a representation of Great Britain surrounded by her allies. The torches, which were carried by the front, are a representation of Great Britain surrounded by her allies. Will Bonard Porto Cabello.
A General Who Violated a Flag of Truce to Hang.
Caracas, Venezuela, Nov. 10.—Gen. Castro yesterday asked Mr. F. B. Loomis, dean of the diplomatic corps, to inform the Ministers and Consuls here and elsewhere that he will attack Porto Cabello—which has not surrendered—by sea, as reported by land and sea to day. This is a notification for the non-combatants and for the evacuees to leave the town, which will be shelled from the town, while the defending forces will be fired upon by Castro's battery. His armed vessels will also take part in the engagement.

Remit in Line of Steamers From Chicago to New York.
Chicago, Nov. 10.—The Times-Herald says: "Direct transportation by water from Chicago to Montreal, and possibly Liverpool, for the steamers and freight traffic, is soon to be established by a new transportation line that has already been incorporated."

Electric Road to Guelph.
Hamilton, Nov. 10.—The Guelph Power Syndicate proposes to build an electric line to Guelph, Ont., from Hamilton and Berlin. It will be a properly constructed, properly graded, road, with double track, not running on side roads. Hon. J. M. Smith, Minister of the Interior, yesterday said that the Government would not object to the line, but that the Government would not object to the line, but that the Government would not object to the line.

Indemnity From Want.
We write insurance. It's our business. You may think us persistent, but we were the worst to happen and were you incapacitated for years you'd be really doing us a great service. Don't be blind to your own interests and the interests of those about you.

PAUPORE FELT RELIEVED
When informed on Arrival That Ladyship Had Not Fallen.
New York, Nov. 10.—Lord Pauport, British Ambassador to the United States, arrived here yesterday on the Oceanic. Lord Pauport, who had been in the United States for some time, was received by the British troops at Ladyship had not fallen. He said: "I am glad that Ladyship had not fallen, and I believe that the situation there will soon be relieved. Lord Pauport is coming up to see Gen. White, and this will change the situation there."

MANY HAPPY RETURNS.
The Prince of Wales Celebrates His Fifty-Eighth Birthday.
London, Nov. 10.—The birthday of the Prince of Wales (who was born Nov. 9, 1841), was celebrated yesterday as usual. St. Paul's, Westminster and other churches were packed, the public buildings floated the Royal Standard, salutes were fired at Windsor, the Horse Guards paraded at the Tower of London.

LUMBER BUSINESS BOOMING.
Mills Boxy and in Both Canada and Britain Prices Are High.
Ottawa, Nov. 10.—Prices for Canadian lumber, especially for common grades, is higher than it has ever been known before. This is the statement of a prominent Canadian lumberman. The Canadian and British markets are stimulated by the high prices. The British market is expected to be further stimulated by the high prices. The British market is expected to be further stimulated by the high prices.

BRAIN FOOD
Is of Little Benefit Unless It is Digested.
Nearly everyone will admit that as a nation we eat too much meat and too little of cereals and vegetables. For business men, office men and clerks, and in fact everyone engaged in sedentary or indoor occupations, grains, milk and vegetables are much more healthful. Only men engaged in a severe outdoor manual labor can live on a heavy meat diet and continue in health.

Dr. Ayer's Pills
As a general rule, meat once a day is sufficient for all classes of men, women and children, and grains, fruit and vegetables should constitute the bulk of food eaten. But many of the most nutritious foods are not easily digested, and it is of no use to advise brain workers to eat largely of grains and vegetables where the digestion is too weak to assimilate them properly. It is always best to get the best results from our food that come from a healthy digestion. Dr. Ayer's Pills are a very safe, pleasant and effective digestive and purgative which may be taken daily with the best results.

New For Duty" For

You insure against the risk of loss by another kind-like new fangled insurance schemes. They usually, but not always, work. It be all right, but you don't know it. The Liverpool, London and Globe Insurance Company pay a good honest price for secure insurance. We have that kind and the records prove it.

THE MYSTERY OF COUNT LANDRINO
BY FRED WHISAW
COPYRIGHT 1899 BY THE AMERICAN PRESS ASSOCIATION.

"Do remember," said Borofsky, somewhat impatiently, "that if this is your father, he is—of course for his own sake—has nothing to do with this point of the investigation—disregard the matter. The main question is not as to the clothes, but the man inside them. Is your father in it? Or do you think it is this the face of the count or another?"

"I must judge by the face alone," I said. "I should say this is a portrait of my father."

"Good!" exclaimed Borofsky. "And very good! I now propose that we show the portrait to the countess and obtain her confirmation of your opinion. When we have that, I shall know what next to do. Mr. Morris, you have done wonders and are to be congratulated. Speaking personally, you have no doubt that this man whose portrait you have taken so cleverly is the very Count Landrino himself."

"Personally I never felt any doubt about it until Count Boris pointed out that his father would never wear his hair in this way, which is perfectly true."

"Ah, the clothes again!" said Borofsky. "You will see that the count might desire to disguise himself."

"It is so unlike him to do so!" said Percy and I almost in one breath.

"Very likely," said Borofsky. "He is very likely to disappear suddenly without warning," continued Borofsky pertinently. "A man who has done the one thing may do the other, both of them as you say, unlike him ordinarily."

There was no answer to this argument so far as my poor dazed brain could discern.

CHAPTER IX.
THE COUNT'S CRIMINAL BROTHER.

There was a great surprise for me at least, in my mother's reception of the news, which it felt to Percy and myself to convey to her, that Percy, while in London, had seen one whom he believed to be my father, and had even photographed him and found out the house in which he was living. She fell on her knees and thanked God aloud for his mercies.

"I knew, I knew that my beloved was alive and that God would return him to us in his good time," she sobbed. "You have seen him alive, dear Percy, and that is enough—the rest will all be clear one day, when my dear husband is restored to himself again—and to me. He has been poorly of late, Boris, but I never suspected that the malady was of this type, until—until that terrible day of his disappearance. I have feared that in some horrid form of temporary irresponsibility he might have—but God is merciful—he has been alive, all will be well."

My poor dear mother laughed and cried, and cried and laughed again. She looked at the photographs and kissed them. "Oh, yes," she said, "but this little doubt—this old poor dear, what a terrible set of clothes and hat! Do you know what I think, Boris? The new tariffs have made a great difference in the price of his own work. He has been haunted by the idea that one day we shall be ruined, and this specter has driven him, for a while, out of his senses, so that he has run away, poor dear son, and dressed himself meanly in order to disguise himself from some imaginary creditors! Did he recognize Stuart to you, Percy?"

"No, he did not, mamma," said Percy dejectedly.

"There, it is all of a piece!" cried the mother. "He desires to remain in the world and unrecognized. I see it all, oh, how plainly!"

Dear, anxious mother, raised from misery to great happiness upon such a basis! How could she guess that the man was setting down, in fancied security and comfort, in the Spanish castle of the sanguine and the sanguine, commonly called the paradise of fools?

Did I, too, take up my abode in this fold's paradise? I fear I must confess that I did. My mother's confidence infected me, and I felt as of father's identity with the man of the portrait as she did.

Borofsky was radiant.

"I only remain, then, to travel to London and bring him back, whether he will or no," he said.

"But mother dearest," said Percy.

"I do not think that," said Percy. "I should not like him interfered with. He will soon outlive this temporary attack of delusion and return of his own free will. I am sure of it. The count is not mad. His intellect is as sound and healthy as any. But he is ill. To torture him in his present condition would do him no good. He would think himself persecuted, and this would give color to the delusion from which he is suffering. Let him be interfered with by you, but by no means allow him to be startled or his liberty interfered with."

Accordingly it was settled that Borofsky, who was unknown to my father—did—should be the one to undertake the duty of watching him. He must settle himself close—opposite if possible—to the count's lodgings, which were in a small street off Fitzroy square, and keep an eye upon the count's movements, using his discretion as to making his acquaintance or not, according to circumstances.

"I shall do so if I can," said Borofsky. "For, if not, I don't see how I am to proceed any further. You may expect to see me return peacefully together after a short while."

"God grant it!" said mother. "But above all things remember not to alarm my poor husband, for that would be the worst policy of all."

"I shall be most careful, mamma," said our little Sherlock Holmes, and with this assurance he departed, well provided with introductions to friends in London in case he should need assistance of any kind in his dealings with Englishmen, whose language he knew little of. He was well supplied with cash, too, and carried instructions to keep as well informed as to his movements, and especially as to my poor father's mental condition and all that concerned him.

For a few days after Borofsky's departure my mother was sanguine and excited, expecting I know not what good news from London, for naturally no news whatever could be received by

VARCOE IN MURDER INQUEST.
Frank Armstrong Tells a Thrilling Story of the Night.

Harry Williams, the Prisoner, Almost Recovered From His Injuries—His Story of the Night.

The court room was crowded when the hearing of evidence was commenced. H. H. Hewitt, Q.C., and R. W. Eyrer appeared for the Crown, and T. C. Robinson represented the prisoner Williams.

The prisoner, Harry Williams, was brought up into the dock by a constable. He had almost completely recovered from the injuries received in falling out of the window to the pavement on the night of the tragedy. His right eye is still covered by a bandage.

The most important testimony was given by Frank Armstrong, who was at the Varcoe home on the night of the tragedy. He said there were three men in the "room" above, besides himself, Allan Varcoe, Noah Thomas, Mrs. Armstrong, Annie Armstrong, Miss Armstrong, Miss Locke, three small brothers of the witness, John Edward Varcoe (the deceased) and his little daughter. The witness testified that the deceased closed up the store after he (the witness) had given $15.45 (the witness) and $15.45 (the witness) to the deceased. The witness testified that the deceased closed up the store after he (the witness) had given $15.45 (the witness) and $15.45 (the witness) to the deceased.

MISS WORELL HAS DISAPPEARED.
St. Catharines, Ont., Nov. 15.—Merritt has a mystery. Miss Agnes Worell, daughter of the late John Worell, has disappeared. She left home on Monday evening to go to the city. She was seen last night, but never reached home. Yesterday morning her cloak and the broad were found beneath a tree in the yard at her house, and it is feared that the young woman has got into the canal. In going home she had to cross the race way of the Lincoln Mills at lock seven, and her friends, among whom she was very popular, are most anxious about her safety.

Down Among The Iron Men

Past, Present and Future of Belleville's New Industry.

Interesting Particulars as to Output and Value of Plant—Vast Quantities of Material on Hand—Sketch of the Principals.

November 22nd, 1899, was a day pregnant with interest to the people of Belleville; verily, a day to be marked with a white stone. After years of depression and dulness, it looked, when the vote of the citizens had been taken, as though an era of prosperity was once more in store for us, and everybody who has been down on a visit of inspection to the vast buildings now erected on the by shore will cheerfully admit that, if present, when one can almost count on his fingers the days which will elapse before the engines begin to throb and the whirr of machinery and the tramp of busy feet commence, if one could collect and publish all the proceedings of the various meetings, and give in full all the arguments advanced pro and con, it would make interesting reading. That is out of the question, but the Intelligencer purposes to give, in as brief and concise a form as possible, as much of the facts and other information as lies in our power.

The first information our citizens had on the subject was when it was announced in the Council that through the efforts and on the recommendation of Mr. T. G. Lister, formerly of Belleville, but then of Norwich, Ont., Mr. Frank A. Mitchell, of the latter City, desired to move his large rolling mill to Canada, and on the recommendation of Mr. Lister, had selected Belleville as a likely spot. He requested that a committee be appointed to see that the mill was properly situated in the mercantile world, and accordingly, a committee, composed of the following gentlemen, went to Norwich: Mayor Johnson, Ald. Bogart and Wallace, and Mr. John G. Frost, President Board of Trade, and Mr. S. S. Masson, City Solicitor.

They came back fully satisfied as to the various matters entrusted to them to investigate, and the question of a bonus was next in order. Mitchell demanded a bonus of $50,000 and, as the site, and a long newspaper controversy ensued, the upshot being that the first agreement, embodying the terms mentioned above, fell through. The second agreement, however, was made, and the mill is now being erected on the site. The third agreement, however, was made, and the mill is now being erected on the site. The third agreement, however, was made, and the mill is now being erected on the site.

WHAT PEOPLE ARE SAYING
That the bicycle rough riders should at least give pedestrians the right of way on the sidewalks.
That ladies are complaining of getting their dresses soiled by tobacco spit on street pavements.
That nowadays the stylish woman believes a bird on the bonnet is worth half a dozen in the bush.
That the Kingston verdict, "justifiable homicide," should cause chicken thieves everywhere to do some hard thinking.
That, talking about the Nicholson's Nek affair, most people would rather be one of the mules who ran away than the one who hoisted the white flag.
That the weather prophets have modified their prognostications. Instead of a "long hard winter," please read a "short hard winter." It's all the same, only different.
That tobogganing is coming into fashion again in some places. We don't know if any sleds have been built in Belleville, but we can call to mind one or two people who have been on the toboggan in this vicinity lately.

That it might be interesting to republish the facts in connection with a certain journalist's turnover which took place in Napawan some few years ago, when Stevenson and Grange contested London for a seat in the Ontario Legislature, and give full particulars as to what led to such "right about face."
That the time has arrived for the people of our city, who have been wearing out their nerves growing about the condition of some of our streets and other things, to do a little thinking. The municipal campaign is opening, and the candidates will soon be in the field. Now, when a man is making for your vote make him pledge himself to something—if it's only to see that a wheelbarrow full of broken stone is put down to fill up a hole on the street. Don't let him "jolly" you and work off old worn out platitudes on you. If his record is not above suspicion, don't let personal considerations make you vote for him; if his record is a good one, vote for him whether he thinks as you do on the logical matters or not. Whatever you do, don't be a back number. There has been too much trusting to luck in municipal affairs in the past. Take an interest in the affairs of your own city and use your influence towards getting the best men to come out this year.

THE BUILDINGS.

Rolling Mills Proper.

The main building, known as the rolling mills proper, stands on the southern part of what was commonly known as the cricket field. It is an immense structure and, as the contractor stated, is one of the largest buildings of its kind. It is a most substantial structure, the material used in its construction being the best that could be obtained. It is a frame building, and is covered with corrugated iron, painted red. It is 321 feet in length, and 150 feet in width. Some of the timbers used were from 35 to 45 feet in length, and were proportionally thick. From the ground floor to the centre of the roof, the distance is about 50 feet. This building was started in April, and was completed in August, within the time specified in the contract. On the south side of the building, the seven large smoke stacks will arise. These are 3 feet 4 inches in diameter, and are elevated to a height of 55 feet above the boilers upon which they will rest.

Rolling Mills Proper.
This is a substantial and imposing brick building erected just north of the rolling mills building. It is 55 feet in width and 200 feet in length. This structure, it has also been erected not only for stability but convenience. There are two annexes to this building, which will be provided with the necessary machinery as soon as the contract for the other portion of the works are in operation.

At the northeast corner of the mill and spike factory, are the connection boiler and engine rooms. Although the machinery is not yet in a position to be driven by the power hereby furnished, fires have been placed under the boilers, and the engine supplying the motive power for the manufacture of nails, spikes, etc., is of the latest design and make. It is equal to about 100 horse power.

In this connection it may be stated that in this engine room will be placed two dynamos for the purpose of supplying the necessary light for the various buildings and grounds. One of the machines will furnish power for 100 powerful are lights, four of which will be used outside and six inside. The other dynamo will furnish 100 incandescent lights distributed in the various buildings.

The Office.
This building, the erection of which was only commenced yesterday, will be in its character and finished up with the latest office improvements. It is situated at the west end of the grounds a short distance east of the main building. It is 25x40, red pressed brick being used in its construction, with white brick for facing. The roof will be a mansard one. The interior will be finished with hard wood, polished. On the ground floor will be the main office, also the superintendent's office. The upper floor will be used for the bookkeeping and other offices. The farm buildings will be in keeping with the buildings. As Mr. Mitchell stated, it will be in every particular a model of modern office buildings.

Other Buildings.
Two other buildings are upon the ground, both of which are pretentious and of good workmanship. To the east of the rolling mill building has been erected a structure known as the bar iron warehouse. It is of frame and sheathed, being 38x45 feet. In it will be stored the products of the rolling mill.

The other building is a storehouse, situated just north of the mill and spike factory, being 120x100 feet. This is also a frame building and sheathed with iron. In it will be stored the products of the mill and spike factory. These two buildings are erected to accommodate the rolling mill and spike factory. The rolling mill building will be used for the rolling of iron and steel, and the spike factory will be used for the manufacture of spikes. The storehouse will be used for the storage of the products of the rolling mill and spike factory. The rolling mill building will be used for the rolling of iron and steel, and the spike factory will be used for the manufacture of spikes. The storehouse will be used for the storage of the products of the rolling mill and spike factory.

FACTS AND FIGURES.

The facts for information last night an Intelligencer representative dropped into the Quinte, and with rare good fortune managed to find Messrs. Mitchell and Mitchell in conversation with their superintendent, Mr. B. F. Pascoe. A request for a little information brought a courteous response in the affirmative, though one of the gentlemen laughingly expressed the hope that we would not present so much inaccurate information as one of our esteemed contemporaries did. In the course of a short conversation THE INTELLIGENCER gathered the following facts:

The company will manufacture merchant iron and steel; horse shoes; out and wire nails; rail spikes; and all other iron and steel work.

The estimated output of the concern will be from 12,000 to 15,000 tons per annum.

As to the date of beginning operations, Mr. Mitchell said that depended altogether on the people. So far as they themselves were concerned operations could begin in a day or two, but just at present they were waiting for other people. Probably the end of this month would see the works at least in partial operation.

The works will employ, when in full operation, from 150 to 175 men.

The machinery and buildings, in their present form, are valued at $185,000, the estimated value of the plant being $150,000.

A query as to the possible amount of the payroll brought forth the answer "That is impossible for us to say. Of course it will largely depend on circumstances and the conditions in other places."

The payroll of the company has been a large one during the past summer and at present they have sixty men employed.

The following gentlemen are the officers of the company:

President and Managing Director—Mr. Frank A. Mitchell.

Vice-President and Secretary—Mr. W. H. Aldrich.

Treasurer—Mr. Henry Pringle.

Assistant Treasurer—Mr. T. H. Camp.

CARPETS.

Crossley's Velvets.

There is no make of carpet that gives a richer effect than a good Velvet Carpet. Like all other pile carpets, the colors blend into each other so beautifully, and they have that softness of tone that harmonize so well with other furnishings in the room.

Crossley's Velvets are made from fine WORSTED yarns, which ensures wear and durability. If you want a carpet rich in appearance and sure to give satisfactory service, and moderate in price, you could not do better than buy one of our Crossley's Velvets.

English Tapestries.

Just now we are showing a particularly choice lot of fine English Tapestry Carpets at 35c, 50c, 65c and 75c a yard. The ones at 65c and 75c have borders to match. These are made by thoroughly reliable English Carpet makers, and will give wonderful service when you consider the price.

Many of these patterns are copies of best Brussels, and it would take an expert to tell the difference between some of them and fine Brussels Carpets.

Art Sateens, Silk Satins, Bracettes, Art Silks, Denims, Cretonnes, Curtain Muslins, etc., etc.

We are showing some choice styles in these durable carpets at $1.25 per yard. As we are Crossley's sole agents for this district they can be had only from us.

Money cheerfully returned if goods not EXACTLY as represented.

STILLING CHILDREN IN PERIA.

The naming of the child in Peria is made an event of great rejoicing and a time for the gathering of relatives. When the guests are assembled, sweetmeats are eaten, and then the infant in its swaddling clothes is brought in and laid on the carpet. The ceremony of naming is then performed. Five names are written on as many slips of paper and placed between the leaves of the Koran. A chapter is read from this book and then one of the slips is drawn at random. The name on the Government of the child is then pronounced. The name is then written on the child's forehead and placed the place of chapter in its clothes. Gifts and congratulations follow.

Boston & Texas Copper Company.

CAPITAL STOCK $2,500,000.
250,000 Shares. Full Paid and Non-assessable.

HON. EMERY M. LOW, President.
JAS. M. WHEATON, Secretary.
F. M. SPAULDING, 2d Vice-President and General Manager.
STILLING CLOUGH, Capitalist, Lowell, Mass.
F. M. SPAULDING, Boston, Mass.
C. F. CROSSBY, Manufacturer, Lowell, Mass.
H. F. BARNES, Manufacturer, Lowell, Mass.
JOHN A. SULLIVAN, Counselor-at-Law, Boston.
E. A. SMITH, Capitalist, Lowell, Mass.

The Company owns over twelve thousand acres of rich copper land in Texas, opened, tested, developed and NOW BEING OPERATED. Millions of tons of copper bearing clay and marl running from five to ten per cent., and large quantities of ore carrying from fifty to seventy per cent. copper in sight. Cheaply mined and treated, favorable climate, cheap fuel, and ample water. Stated by geologists, chemists, experts and engineers to be one of the greatest and best in the world. Amount of land, quantity and quality of ore, cheapness of mining and treatment, the increasing demand and profit in producing copper considered, the Boston and Texas Copper Company possesses unequalled advantages and affords the best kind of an investment.

This Company can produce copper as cheaply as any in the world. COPPER MINING IS THE SAFEST AND MOST PROFITABLE OF ALL INDUSTRIES.

Calumet and Hecla ore averages 4 1-2 per cent. copper. It has paid $62,850,000 dividends. Tamarack ore averages 3 per cent. It has paid $5,910,000 in dividends. Atlantic ore averages 85-100 of 1 per cent. It has paid $780,000 in dividends. Boston and Montana ore runs 7 per cent. It has paid $10,775,000 in dividends. Franklin ore averages 1 37-100 per cent. It has paid $1,290,000 in dividends. The Quincy ore averages 1 8-10 per cent. It has paid $11,070,000.

THE AVERAGE OF BOSTON & TEXAS ORE IS OVER 50 PER CENT., and of copper marls and clays from 5 to 10 per cent. Both the ore, marl and clay are within a few feet of the surface of the ground, so that the expense of mining and hoisting is minimized. A party of New England capitalists who have just returned from an examination of the mines in conjunction with one of the ablest mining engineers in the country, report the property to be one of the largest and best in America, and to contain inexhaustible quantities of rich copper deposits.

It is estimated that the plant now being arranged for will produce $3,000 to $5,000 per day, NET.

Prospectus, engineers' reports, assays and full information will be furnished on application. Remit by check, P. O. order, draft or registered letter to Treasurer. Limited amount of stock only at $5 per share, full paid and non-assessable, by immediate application.

After the Feast..

If people will partake of the inner man one likes, Hutch makes it an easy matter. The action of Hutch is simple because it is natural. It induces the secretion of the gastric juices, the food becomes dissolved, it promotes assimilation, the wheat is separated from the chaff and what is beneficial to the body retained and by being slightly cathartic it expels all excess, the chaff is thrown away, as it were. Another feature peculiar to Hutch is that it does not weaken. Purgatives, cathartics, etc., induce constipation and necessitate increased doses to be effectual. Hutch strengthens the entire system and every organ is toned up in like degree. Thus you will find that instead of increasing you will probably have to lessen the doses of Hutch.

NO. 172

Afternoon Despatches.

The INTELLIGENCER'S afternoon despatches are twelve hours in advance of the Toronto morning papers.

Gen. Clery's Tough Job

Task of Relieving Ladysmith Will Tax His Generalship.

The Present Week Will See a Change in the Defensive Tactics of the British in South Africa—Gen. Joubert Will Himself Oppose the British Advance.

(OTHER DESPATCHES ON INSIDE PAGES.)

London, Nov. 20.—The present week, according to the despatches from the front, ought to see a change in the defensive tactics hitherto maintained by the British in South Africa.

It is said that the task allotted to Gen. Clery, that of relieving Ladysmith, will tax his generalship to the utmost.

The Boers are developing a great deal of strength in the neighborhood of Estcourt, and Gen. Joubert is reported to be moving southward himself, in order to direct the movements to repel the British advance after, it would seem, attempting to isolate Estcourt.

This latter movement is already in progress. The Boers practically surround the town.

The so-called Boer attempt to rush Estcourt on Saturday was apparently merely a reconnaissance. It resulted in the Boers obtaining the information which they desired, namely that Estcourt is fairly strongly held and has naval guns in position.

Ready to Wear Clothing
Has a great many advantages—the most prominent of which is that it is ready to wear. There's no waiting, no fussing because you don't get your clothes when promised, and the minute you see a ready-to-wear suit you know whether or no you like it. Our stock is large, our stock is varied. The prices are economical, the styles are the latest. The workmanship is perfect. We'll be pleased to see you.—QUICK & ROBERTSON.

WHAT PEOPLE ARE SAYING

Give us cheaper light.
That the gas man's grip on this dear town is about to relax.

That some of Belleville's streets yesterday looked more like ploughed fields than thoroughfares.

That the Mayoralty candidates will soon be in the field. The names of some capable men are mentioned.

That if this weather keeps up some of the coal dealers will have a good deal of stock on their hands next spring.

That if gas can be brought down to $1.50 per thousand in this City it should be done. If not, give us electricity.

That those poles on Bridge st. are not an additional beauty to the thoroughfare, but we can stand a very large pole provided we do not have to longer pay the "robber's price" for light in our residences.

That, up to now, only a favored few have been able to indulge in the expensive luxury of gas. The man of moderate means now wants a chance to use something better than vile kerosene oil.

That anyone walking around in the suburbs of Belleville yesterday and listening to the comments of the people on the streets would come to the conclusion that the following verse would just about hit off the popular feeling at the present time:

You have bought a nice steam roller, you have beautified the park.
You will soon have an electric fire alarm; Now, then, kindly cast your optics on a subject rather dark.

Though to you, perhaps, it may not have much charm.
You are almost-minded leggers and you are prone to forget

(All we can do is take you as we find you) Just bear in mind, you aldermen, we outsiders have some rights.
And there's one thing we won't stand for—we'll remind you

East streets, west streets, all the back streets are laid.
Most of the streets you look upon are all the same to-day.

They never have known gravel or stone since the day they first were made.
What do we get for the taxes that we pay—
—pay—pay!

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

Two of Our Citizens Write on Timely Matters.

Who Owns Our Streets?

To the Editor of THE INTELLIGENCER.
Sir,—That the citizens of Belleville have unnecessarily paid into the pockets of the Pearson Company and the Belleville Gas Company thousands of dollars, through the excessive price paid for both gas and electric light, will at once be apparent to anyone who contrasts the cost here with that charged in other similarly situated localities. An attempt was made in the by-law of the Trenton Electric Company to enforce a reasonable charge for light for private consumers. It was argued then that their supply and demand would regulate cost—but our experience shows that it will not always do so where we must have light and where the supply is controlled by one, or by two who combine by lease or otherwise.

But a graver question than cheap light to the individual is before the Council now. It may be put very plainly before us (burdened as we are with debt), and it is this—Are we to assert ownership in our own streets? Are our franchises worth nothing? Times have changed in the last four years. Municipalities have awakened to their rights and no longer give valuable privileges for nothing; no longer give privileges beyond a very limited time.

Times have especially changed in Belleville. A new era of prosperity has begun, thanks chiefly to the enterprise of the Abbott-Mitchell Co. Our pulse beats a little quicker. Our public rights have become more valuable assets. We have a future. Companies must, therefore, negotiate with us on business terms. We have nothing to give away (except to large employers of labor). Our Council, who are trustees for us, must see to it that no company or individual rides rough-shod over them, and appropriates, without legal warrant, what belongs to us, the tax-paying (and light-paying) citizens. Let us have competition by all means, but that will come just as surely with, as without, a substantial yearly payment into the City Treasury.

It is a very specious pleading to cry "cheap light, cheap light," when a principle, far reaching in its effects on the public, is involved.

The attention of the people cannot be distracted from these well-established facts—that circumstances have entirely changed since 1896 and that rights which were then conceded, and which have been secured on, no longer exist. The City is there fore free to negotiate a new bargain for a short term.

I am no lover of the Belleville Gas Co. There is always a lot of bunkum talked about that Company's shareholders and the City stock. Let us charge the Gas Co., too, for public privileges if the law allows it. This is a broader matter than a gas meter, and it behooves us now to guard well our new civic future, at the portals of which we stand, the first step of a new century of hope and united enterprise.

Before closing permit me to say, with regard to a cognate subject as to City administration of streets, that I believe I voice the opinion of 90 per cent. of the citizens in condemning the shilly-shallying policy of the Council in regard to the opening up of George street. For three years the money has been voted—for three years diverted—for three years private subscriptions (of which there are two many in Belleville) have been obtained to accomplish the City's grant—for three years the subscribers have been told that our representatives don't know their own minds. In the spring they expand, in the fall they contract. This year the failure has been not merely a matter of indecision but also to a certain extent a breach of faith with the great new industry, of which we are already reaping the beneficial effect through the weekly wage roll expended in our City, and with the residents of Foster Ward. Is the building of a road fence to impede the progress of liberal public policy in this City?

It is some years since I have written or spoken about municipal affairs, but I feel that it is now the duty of every man not merely to think, but to express his thoughts—not merely to bear burdens but to endeavor to co-operate in devising means for lightening the load. This will not be done by petty economies and progressive and expansive conduct of public development, and by realizing the value of our public rights and franchises, and at the same time generously conceding all industrial enterprises properly so called.

Yours, etc.,
W. N. POSTON.

ABOUT THOSE POLES.

To the Editor of THE INTELLIGENCER.
Sir,—Reading the report of the Committee meeting of the City Council I was pleased with the stand taken by our Mayor and some of the Aldermen in reference to the rights of compensation themselves the "Trenton Electric Light Co." have, because anyone interested in keeping our streets respectable in appearance cannot fail to notice the unsightly effect it will have in placing the culls of a cedar swamp on them, for the benefit of private property, to impose upon our citizens such terms and conditions for the use of electric light as they may think proper to offer. Now, of course we permit any such monopoly or privilege to stay any company it will be time enough when we know what we are to receive in return, and even after such privilege is granted it will be in order to see that what is provided is to the satisfaction of some person with civil power to reject any materials not in accordance with a specification to be provided for such work.

As a taxpayer I most respectfully trust the Council will examine this matter carefully before it is too late.

Yours truly,
WALTER ALPERT.

FOR MEN. HATS.

There is no department in connection with our business that is receiving more of our attention and energy than our Men's Furnishing Department. While we carried on the Tailoring we had not the space to develop it as we wished, but since we have discontinued that branch we are able to keep a larger and finer assortment of all kinds of Boys' and Men's Furnishings. The HIGH CLASS goods we carry here are rarely found outside the exclusive Men's Furnishing stores in the large cities, while our prices will be found so much lower than those charged for the same class of goods.

Men's Underwear.

We have a complete stock of Imported and Domestic Underwear, including Cartwright and Warner's fine Natural Wools, Turnbull's fine Wools, and Wright's Health Brand. The name of each of these makers stands for high grade reliable garments. We have also all sizes in Boys' Shirts and Drawers.

Shirts.

White and colored Dress Shirts in a variety of styles and a splendid lot of Men's White Undershirted Shirts.

Collars and Cuffs.

Fine quality English Linen Collars and Cuffs in all the latest approved styles. If you have been troubled with your collars wearing out too quickly try our special English brands.

Neckwear.

Every week we are adding the new patterns in Gentlemen's Ties as they appear in New York and London. Just now we are showing some choice styles in SILK HANDKERCHIEF SCARVES for wearing under the overcoat.

Men's Umbrellas.

New styles in handles with durable silk coverings.

Winter Gloves.

Wool lined, silk lined, and fur lined gloves in Kid, Mocha and Napa buck, for driving or walking, from 50c to $4 a pair. A splendid assortment to choose from.

New Hats.

Soft Felt and Stiff Hats in the very latest styles to fit all heads. Men's and Boys' Cloth Caps in great variety.

An additional two dozen patterns of modern mouldings to hand, totalling our present variety to 266 styles, with plenty stock of each pattern. Some have indicated that we do not mean what we have advertised about removing our Eastern branch from Belleville. There are always those who know more about one's affairs than one himself and such seems to be the case in Belleville. We leave Belleville early in the coming year 1900 if at all possible to dispose of the Stationery, Book and Fancy Goods end of our business, regretting exceedingly that it is found necessary, in order to better develop the Wall Paper end of our business, to locate in larger cities.

THE MYSTERY OF COUNT LANDRINO

BY FRED WHISAW.

Copyright 1899 by the American Press Association.

And with the document I rushed to my mother.

"It's all right, dear," I blurted. "Borofsky has got him. Tomorrow evening I will dine with him. I thought he would come to the theatre—tears of pure relief and rest from anxiety."

This was the happiest afternoon and evening we had spent for two months. Tomorrow's meeting would be painful no doubt; but, oh, the difference between the life of a man who is ill though he might be, rather than to think of him as a poor lost soul alone in London, helpless and friendless and despondent!

I thought the evening of that Wednesday would never come. How slowly the winged minutes crawled! We prepared everything for father's comfort; I made his room look as if [TO BE CONTINUED.]

PREMIER GREENWAY AFRAID.

Would Not Hear Mr. Fisher, Russell's Independent.

He and His Party Left, but the Audience Remained and Mr. Fisher Made a Battering Speech to Them—Stewart Tupper's Arrangement—Government Rescued to Bribery Trials to Save Themselves.

Winipeg, Nov. 22.—(Special.)—There was a large attendance at the meeting of Mr. Greenway, Premier of the Manitoba Government, and Mr. Fisher, Minister of the Interior, at the Hotel Victoria, last evening. Mr. Fisher, in his speech, made a strong appeal to the audience to support the Government. He said that the Government was in a difficult position, and that it was necessary for them to take strong measures to maintain their position. He said that the Government was in a difficult position, and that it was necessary for them to take strong measures to maintain their position. He said that the Government was in a difficult position, and that it was necessary for them to take strong measures to maintain their position.

"We shall know all, mother, in God's good time," I said. "Let us be patient and let God do His will. What has my poor Vladimir ever done to be visited by so terrible an affliction, and what manner of calamity could have occurred to such a man that could be so overwhelming to unbalance his mind?"

These were questions which I could not answer, for they were the very ones that were vexing my own soul as well as his.

"We shall know all, mother, in God's good time," I said. "Let us be patient and let God do His will. What has my poor Vladimir ever done to be visited by so terrible an affliction, and what manner of calamity could have occurred to such a man that could be so overwhelming to unbalance his mind?"

QUEBEC SOLDIERS ARE INSURED.

Private Individuals Have Done for Members of the Contingent What Government Failed to Do.

Montreal, Nov. 22.—(Special.)—While the Dominion Government has signally failed to provide for the needs of the contingent of Quebec soldiers, private individuals have done for them what the Government failed to do. The contingent of Quebec soldiers, who are serving in the Boer War, have been provided for by private individuals, who have provided them with food, clothing, and other necessities. This has been done by private individuals, who have provided them with food, clothing, and other necessities.

CONCENTRATION

You can fire a volley of advertising at the whole city of Belleville through THE INTELLIGENCER—reaching the homes every evening.

INTELLIGENCER advertising is the main force in covering the city. This main force is necessary to succeed on the Belleville field—other advertising is as the wind under the wings of the skimmer—useful, perhaps, but not absolutely necessary.

A concentration of force wins knowledge it.

The people have chosen their advertising medium—so that one oat will cover the field.

To reach the country as well as the city use the Weekly INTELLIGENCER.

Success.

A sluggish liver and poor digestion never accomplish much in this world—it never will. The true genius of success is health.

The daily use of Abbey's Effervescent Salt keeps the liver and digestive organs in perfect order, and gives the health that wins success.

For coughs, colds, bronchitis and all lung and throat troubles, there is no preparation so effective as a compound with HICKS' Anti-Consumptive Syrup. It never fails to afford prompt and permanent relief of the most distressing cough, and by its expectorant action, removes the mucus which causes the tickle in the throat, and thus relieves the patient of the most annoying and distressing symptom of the disease. Public speakers and singers will find HICKS' Anti-Consumptive Syrup a most valuable remedy as it speedsily and effectively clears the vocal organs, and its tonic power to the throat, rendering the voice clear and strong, and thus enabling the singer to perform with ease and confidence, and the speaker to deliver his message with clearness and power. It is a most valuable remedy for the cure of the disease, and its use is recommended by the most eminent medical authorities. ported in healthy condition, though thin for the most part in consequence of short pasture, but there is no allusion to any form of animal disease. The corn crop is well advanced in nearly all localities, for the winter's supply, especially of corn and coarse feed, but the hay crop has been light, and it commands a high price in many places.

The dairy industry has been much injured by the dryness of the season, has on the whole been flourishing under the stimulus of good prices. In many parts—more particularly in the west—the manufacture of butter is being largely abandoned, and the dairymen are turning their attention to raising live stock, and to raising crops of milk-producing stock.

Severe fighting in the north of Luzon, Philippines, began Tuesday, Nov. 21. Four Americans were killed and 25 were wounded, including two officers. The insurgents are retreating to Santa Barbara, but movement for the manufacture of butter in cheese factories in the winter season has become general in the country. The returns regarding the poultry industry in general are of a highly encouraging character, indicating that farmers in all parts are devoting more care and attention to this department, and so engaged in poultry raising more extensively than in former years. There have been good wherever fowls have received proper treatment. The egg production has been above the average and prices have been reasonable. The fowls are in good condition and are ready for market in some parts, though the season was not too favorable for raising them successfully.

London, Nov. 23.—The Secretary of War has received the following report from General Forester-Walker, from General Methuen, dated Heligaut, Nov. 23: "I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 21st inst. of this morning. He was in strong position, the ridges were carried in succession, the last ridge was taken by the 1st and 2nd brigades, they behaved splendidly and received support from the naval brigade and artillery. I was left with only 100 men, and I was attacked until I should have had 500 men. I was completely victorious."

I have taken 40 prisoners. An artillery battery was captured, but the guns were lost. Part of the enemy killed and wounded were conveyed by their comrades. I have captured 1000 rifles, 10000 rounds of ammunition, destroyed a large quantity of ammunition, and captured 10000 rounds of ammunition."

London, Nov. 23.—(Telegram Cable.)—A telegram from Cape Town to The Italy Mail says a hearty reception is being given to the South African regiment. It is probable that the municipality of Cape Town will give the South African regiment an official welcome. This is somewhat surprising, in view of the fact that the South African government is at present at odds with the British government. When Sir James Buller arrived not a flag was hoisted on a single Government building. The British government make up any shortcomings on the part of the Government by making a point of showing their appreciation for the Canadians to the British government. The British government are sending troops through the town, instead of enrolling them in the town, and the British government are sending the troops to the town, instead of enrolling them in the town, and the British government are sending the troops to the town, instead of enrolling them in the town.

French Canadian Loyalty.

LONDON, Nov. 23.—(Telegram Cable.)—The following is the substance of a report from Toronto concerning French-Canadian feeling in regard to the war with the South African Republic. The report states that the feeling is to the effect that on the whole the people in Quebec, and in the French Canadian provinces, are in sympathy with Great Britain and in general contentment under British rule.

On commenting on its correspondent's views the Chronicle says it is inclined to think that the French Canadian people are, in general, having intervened so generously

Canada Has a Full Quota.

Ottawa, Nov. 28.—In respect of the state of affairs in the Yukon, the Canadian government does not avail herself of the opportunity of sending officers for special service to the Yukon. The Canadian government, through the Deputy Minister of Militia and Defence, states that "whenever some minimum number of officers is required to complement the officers with the contingent of the Canadian Forces in the Yukon for the purpose of special service and observation, this does not include Capt. Dixon." The statement is made in connection with the Major-General Hutton has been feeling that he forwarded too many for special service.

EQUAL FREEDOM FOR ALL
Sir Alfred Milner Denies False Report
CAPE TOWN, Nov. 23.—Sir Alfred Milner has issued a proclamation to the people of the colony, in the course of which he has said that it is not the policy of the Imperial Government, Misleading news from beyond the sea has caused the Imperial authorities, as desiring to uphold the Dutch, and the idea has spread in the Cape Colony, that the British Government is desirous of depriving the Dutch of their constitutional rights. There is also a rumour that the British Government has no truth in such allegations. The Imperial Government desires the greatest freedom of self-government for both Dutch and British.

either to the police or any one else, he had a card or two up his sleeve that he could play if he liked, and he knew that on one day if he were left in peace and decently treated, something, indeed, would be greatly to our advantage but we but share his knowledge.

"Oh, what does he mean, Borofsky, what does he mean?" I asked.

"Does he know where my father is?" he asked.

"Does he know where my father is?" he asked.

"Does he know where my father is?" he asked.

CHAPTER XV THE IMPRISONMENT.

When the silence was broken at length, it was poor old Percy who broke it.

"This is a pretty business," he said. "And what a blithering blundering pedagogue as I have made of myself! It is all my fault, old man, and I feel—I really do feel—that to chuck myself into the sea is the only and certainly the most appropriate and endurable thing left for P. J. M. to do."

"Nonsense!" I said. "It will all come right. We shall never find the right track until we have tried and rejected each wrong one that comes in our way. Don't look so gloom, Percy, for you Borofsky either. It isn't your fault. You did your best, and did it well. How could you tell he was your father, when even mother and I passed the photo as authentic?"

"Still one feels what a mess one has made of the thing," said Borofsky. "But look here—Count Boris, and you, too, Mr. Percy, you may both be witnesses—I hereby swear that I haven't done with this case and I'm not going to let it go until I have got the better of it this time, but one day I shall turn the tables on him!"

"Don't frighten him, Borofsky," I said. "We shall be more likely to make him of use to us if we let him be awhile."

"All right, all right," said Borofsky. "I shall do nothing foolish. I intend to wait next time, my friend; my reputation has leeway to make up. If you are kind enough to forget it, I cannot."

"So he means," said Percy, "that I will with you in this, Borofsky. If we can score off the rascals, we will. It is a league?"

"League or no league," growled Borofsky, who was dependent and not very genial. "I'm not going to rest until I'm quits with the fellow. We could, of course, inform the police that he is here—wherever he may be—and let them take this matter over. He is sure to be up to no good. But the countess wishes to be left to herself, and I would prefer it that way, because if the police get a finger in the pie the fellow is as good as delivered out of our hands, and I, for one, have not done with him."

"Only don't forget, Borofsky," I said, "that the main idea is to find a way to get this rascal to disclose some important information about the count, which neither seems to think he can give, nor I, for one, have not done with him."

"Only don't forget, Borofsky," I said, "that the main idea is to find a way to get this rascal to disclose some important information about the count, which neither seems to think he can give, nor I, for one, have not done with him."

CHAPTER XVI ANDER LANDRINOE'S BROTHER.

So we three men settled down to watch the one man, though we allowed him to observe no indication that we were interested in him. And at first we thought we must be mistaken as to his connection with revolutionary people, anarchists and malcontents and rascals generally, for his conduct was quiet and exemplary, and he came and went in and out of the house, mistaken by most of those who saw him for Count Landrinoe.

Vanderbilt's $10,000 Cook

SOUVENIR

The great financier pays his cook $10,000 a year to have his stomach treated fairly. The "thousand and one" delicacies that this king of the kitchen prepares for his master, if not cooked in a good stove, would count for nothing. Cooking, whether by a Vanderbilt cook or a poor fellow, depends on the stove. This is the story.

Here is where the Souvenir Kitchen range comes in. It is the only stove with an automatic oven, which, by means of a special method of construction, keeps the heat just where it should be.

Mrs. W. Marshall writes: "I have a lovely nut-brown hair, and I am in the habit of using the Souvenir Kitchen range. It is the only stove with an automatic oven, which, by means of a special method of construction, keeps the heat just where it should be."

Gen. Hildyard's Night Attack Was too Much for the Boers—Methuen Asks for Reinforcements.

(OTHER DESPATCHES ON INSIDE PAGES.)

London, Nov. 30.—A cable was received from Gen. Buller to-day. Railway and telegraph lines are now open from Capetown to Modder River. Kimberley was all right on Nov. 28. Gen. Gatacre reports that on Nov. 28 the situation was unchanged. A despatch from Ladysmith says the Boers were beaten back with great loss on Nov. 9. The British casualties were remarkably small. From Nov. 9 to 25, when the messenger left Ladysmith, no attempt had been made to attack the town in force.

Young Conservatives to Meet.

The following circular has been received by many in the city, which explains itself: You will please attend a meeting at Albert Hall, Friday, December 1st, 1899, at 8 p.m., to form a Liberal-Conservative Auxiliary. Being your Conservative friends. Signed—J. R. Anderson, D. Barnard, Dr. Clark, J. R. Cooper, W. A. G. Hardy, Alf. J. McCord, Dr. M. Keown, W. C. Mikel, Dr. Thompson.

WHAT PEOPLE ARE SAYING.

That if the ladies want to keep their skirts clean nowadays they must raise them over two feet. That Oom Paul has probably realized by this time what kind of a Christmas box he has coming to him. Gentlemen who want a useful bargain should look in Haines & Lockett's window. They are clearing out a lot of odd and extra goods at half price. They are splendid quality, but the style is not quite the latest.

IN HYMEN'S BONDS.

Two Pretty Weddings in this Vicinity Yesterday and To-day.

SHACKLE—HUGHES. At noon to-day a quiet wedding took place on College Hill, the contracting parties being Miss Minnie L. Hughes, daughter of the late W. O. Hughes, and Mr. W. H. Shackel, insurance agent, of this city.

This event occurred at the residence of the bride's mother and the ceremony was performed by Rev. N. Hill, pastor of the Methodist Church, assisted by Rev. Dr. Dyer, Principal of Albert College. After the nuptial knot had been tied the few invited friends partook of a wedding dinner. The young couple left on the afternoon train for the west and will return to the city to reside.

ARTHURS—SMITH. Mr. Alex. Arthurs, of Trenton, and Miss Mary Smith, of this City, formerly of Tyndings, were married in St. Thomas' Church Hall yesterday afternoon by Rev. Canon Burke. Miss Bone was bridesmaid and Mr. R. Weaver, of Trenton, was best man. Mr. and Mrs. Arthurs left for Trenton, where a reception was awaiting them at the groom's home.

The bride's dress was of lawn cloth, tailor made, and she looked very charming in a purple velvet hat. The bridesmaid was dressed in lawn cloth with a black velvet hat. The bride received a number of handsome and useful presents.

A Beautiful Toned Piano.

Mrs. Howe, organist, and Mr. Fox, choir master of John Street Presbyterian Church, say that at the entertainment given in that church last night everybody was talking about the beautiful toned piano, and several asked them where it was and where it came from. Of course, they did not hesitate to tell that it was a Heintzman & Co., and was supplied by Mr. W. B. Eidos.

ELECTRIC LIGHT MATTERS.

Some Items Which Will Prove Interesting.

Something About the Price Charged in Peterboro—Technical Phrases Explained.

Without attempting to make a pun one may say that the light question is a burning question in Belleville just now, and any information in regard to it will be welcomed. As has already been pointed out, it is not fair to take the town of Napawan as a criterion, for there are three companies there, and they are cutting each other's throats, but the town of Peterboro may, we think, be safely accepted as holding a position nearly analogous to that of Belleville.

Mr. John Doyle, Chairman of the Executive Committee, wrote on Sunday night last to Mr. F. D. Mackay, of Peterboro, asking him to be good enough to forward any information relative to the electric light system in Peterboro which he thought would be of interest. Mr. Mackay very courteously replied the next day, his letter being as follows:

Nov. 27, 1899. John Doyle, Esq., Chairman Executive Committee, Belleville, Ont.

DEAR SIR,—In reply to yours of the 27th, received this morning, I have pleasure in giving what information I have.

The charges for light in the stores are: 50 cents per lamp per month for 15 c.p., or by metre 15 cents per 1000 Watt hours. The charge for private residences is 10 cents per lamp and 10 cents per 1000 Watt hours.

Street lamps cost the town $65 per lamp per year for the first 80 lamps, then $60 per lamp per year for all over 80. The Company pays a pole rental of $400 and their poles and wires are assessed the taxes they pay amounting to something over $100.

The Company's franchise is for seven years and has four years yet to run. Hoping this will give you the information you desire,

I remain, yours, etc., F. D. MACKAY.

It will be noted that the Peterboro contract was made about the same time as the Belleville one which the City Solicitor has declared void.

Thinking that perhaps the technical terms in Mr. Mackay's letter might not be clear to all our readers, THE INTELLIGENCER this morning took the trouble to visit a gentleman thoroughly posted in such matters, who was kind enough to state the case in plain English, as follows:

The average gas burner is a five foot one, so that 1000 feet of gas, with a five-foot burner, will last 200 hours. The charge for that in Belleville at present is $2.25. Comparing that with electricity we find that a $2.25 rate would equal 214 cents per thousand Watt hours.

It will be remembered that at the meeting of the Executive Committee Mr. Pearson offered to supply electricity at a rate to equal gas at $1.50 per thousand feet, which would mean 144 cents per 1000 Watt hours. Gas at $1.25 per thousand would equal electric light at 10 cents per thousand Watt hours.

Taking the electric lamp most in use in private residences or stores as a criterion to go by, it may be said in a nutshell that 1000 Watt hours will burn 18 hours.

In conversation with a gentleman thoroughly posted on electric light matters THE INTELLIGENCER has been called attention to the following points, which would be of vital interest in a new contract:

1st.—As to the time of service; in some places the term night service means until midnight, other places from dark to daylight.

2d.—As to the lamp used and the quality and lighting power of same, some being only 4 candle power, some 8 candle, some 12, some 16. Very necessary that the candle power be designated.

3d.—Quality of lamps a most important consideration.

D. V. SINCLAIR & CO.

SOME PEOPLE CRITICIZE.

Our selling at half price and ask why it was done and if it will be repeated.

It was done for two reasons:

One that we could advertise our sale more speedily.

Another that we clear off all of last year's goods before the arrival of our new holiday stock now en route from the foreign markets.

We were not anxious to sell largely during the hour sale else we would not have limited it to the hour you may depend, and we did not sell very largely, such is impossible during a single hour and in a rush such as we had.

Our half price sale will not be repeated this year.

Some people say, too, we are always having sales. Well, we venture to say that the prominent business houses in this city have sales ten to our one. Autumn sales, spring sales, Friday sales, remnant sales, etc., etc., and it's their own business if they have twenty to our one, we do not object. It's a year now since we have had a sale and that was when we purchased the Flower stock last autumn. But when we put on a sale we do it right, have a real sale, a satisfactory sale or none.
